Protesters Fail To Tie Up Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Anti-war demonstrators clashed repeatedly with police and snarled rush-hour traffic in the capital today, but the arrest of more than 5,000 frustrated protesters' efforts to paralyze the nation's government.

Flying squads of police, backed by National Guardsmen and federal troops, kept traffic flowing across major bridges into the capital, but numerous intersections in the city itself were blocked temporarily by the demonstrators' hit-and-run tactics.

"The city is open. The traffic is flowing. The government is functioning," Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said at midmorning. Mayor Walter Washington agreed, saying the demonstrators "did not succeed."

Absentee records were not immediately available, but quick surveys of major agencies indicated the normal complement of federal employees had shown up for work today. "It looks like a normal day," several personnel officers said.

Many of the employees, however, had to drive or walk through billowing clouds of tear gas. They joined demonstrators in holding handkerchiefs to streaming eyes and smarting nostrils.

Volley after volley of tear gas had been fired by riot-equipped police, who also wielded billy clubs to disperse crowds of demonstrators.

The protesters, mostly college-age youths, tied up traffic in the Georgetown and downtown areas by hurling debris—and in some cases themselves—into the streets.

Some vehicles were overturned and others set afire. Vandalism was widespread. By 9 a.m., about 2,200 Marines and Army paratroopers were moved into the city from nearby staging areas—some of them in helicopters which landed on the Washington Monument grounds.

Officials said they had been requested by Police Chief Jerry Wilson, who at midmorning radioed his men in the streets.

"You are prevailing against great odds. You are doing an outstanding job. Keep up the good work."

With the aid of 2,000 federal troops, police kept demonstrators from achieving two of their major objectives—blocking four major Potomac River bridges and marching on the Pentagon.

But the toll was high for both sides in the skirmishes.

Emergency rooms at city hospitals were crowded with injured demonstrators and policemen. No count of the number hurt was available immediately.

The arrested demonstrators were herded onto buses and rented vans and taken to a makeshift compound near Kennedy Stadium.

The demonstrators were almost all young men. However, there was a considerable sprinkling of young women.

The Mayday demonstration had been billed in advance as a massive show of nonviolent civil DEATH CAR — Eighth fatality in Pickaway County's annual auto death count is 22-year-old Robert E. Schwalbauch, Route 3. Schwalbauch was northbound in his auto on the Circleville-Westfall Road when it went out of control at a curve and into a tree, striking the driver's door. Above, Deputy John Bost and onlookers attempt to clear the body from the wreckage.

22-Year-Old Route 3 Man Killed When Car Hits Tree

A 22-year-old Route 3 man was killed when his car struck a tree 12:55 a.m. Sunday on the Circleville - Westfall Road one-mile south of Route 22 in Wayne Township.

Robert E. Schwalbauch suffered massive head and chest injuries in the accident and was pronounced dead by Pickaway County Coroner Dr. Ray Carroll.

According to the report of Deputy Sheriff John Bost, Schwalbauch was northbound on the Circleville - Westfall Road at a high rate of speed when he lost control of his car in a curve.

The vehicle traveled 201 feet on the left berm, careened broadside back across the road for a distance of 115 feet and collided with a tree. The area of the impact was near the door on the driver's side.

BORN March 25, 1949 in Circleville, he was the son of Harold Schwalbauch of Wilmington, Delaware and Barbara Teets Tilton of 135 W. High St. Both parents survive.

In addition to his parents, he is also survived by his widow, the former Peggy Cooper; a brother, Ronald Schwalbauch of 535 S. Scioto St.; a step-brother, John Aber of Hershey, Pa.; three half-brothers, Gary Sch-walbauch, Hank Schwalbauch and Timmy Schwalbauch, all of Wilmington, Del.

Two half-sisters, Nancy Schwalbauch and Candy Schwalbauch of Wilmington, Del.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Teets of 205½ W. Main St.

He was a member of Moose Lodge 433 and the ABC Bowling Association.

Services will be 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Defenbaugh Funeral Home with Rev. Paul Wachs officiating. Burial will be in Forest Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home beginning 7 p.m. today.

Spinoffs Sought Cash For SST

Technological Progress Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Builders of the defunct supersonic transport plane are asking the federal government to provide $15 million to $20 million to complete work on technological advancements made during SST research.

A team from the Seattle-based Boeing Co. is in Washington attempting to convince congressmen and key federal officials the advancements are too important to let die.

The Boeing-General Electric program to build two test models of the 1,800-mile-an-hour airplane lurched to a stop March 21 when the Senate voted to deny further development funds.

Walter C. Swan, Boeing's chief SST engineer, and William H. Cook, technical director of the firm's commercial airplane group, are leading the lobbying attempt.

"In the last 30 days, we have taken a task team and gone through the program to find out what was accomplished with $1 billion in the taxpayer's money," Swan said.

"We found over 100 areas in which advances were being made, and screened those that were absolutely urgent, and came up with 10 major technological developments—items in major use in no other place."

"The other 90 are of the types that can be carried out in normal processing," he said, "but the top 10 are those about which there can be no question that America ought to keep the technology that has become available."

Swan said results of the developments, which would be turned over to the government and to industry generally, would provide valuable technology in military and civilian aircraft and spacecraft.

Court Lets Death Penalty Stand

Could Bring Speedy Wave Of Executions

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court rejected 6 to 3 today challenges to death penalty procedures in the United States.

The ruling, delivered by Justice John M. Harlan, said leaving to the jury's discretion the power to decide between life or death in capital cases does not violate the Constitution.

Secondly, Harlan said, the Constitution does not require separating the penalty phase of capital trials from the body of the trial.

The decision upholds first-degree murder convictions and death sentences against Dennis C. McGautha of Los Angeles and James E. Crampton of Toledo, Ohio. McGautha was found guilty of killing a grocer, Crampton of killing his wife.

The issues raised in their appeals had blocked execution in the United States for almost four years. There are now 644 men and seven women on death row in 33 states. The ruling could result in early executions in many instances.

Justice Harlan was joined by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justices Hugo L. Black, Potter Stewart, Byron R. White and Harry A. Blackmun. Justices William J. Brennan Jr., William O. Douglas and Thurgood Marshall dissented.

The decision does not dispose of the ultimate challenge to capital punishment. This is the argument that the death penalty is a form of cruel and unusual punishment prohibited by the Constitution. The court has never ruled on that question, although the issue is regularly up to the justices in appeals from condemned men.

Cambodia Still Without Government

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP) — Brig. Gen. In Tam, the latest nominee to end Cambodia's political crisis, today declined to form a government and said he was working on another solution.

In Tam, the 55-year-old head of the National Assembly, told the assembly he and other leaders were trying to work out a formula under which ailing Marshal Lon Nol, the outgoing premier, would be the titular head of the government and Lt. Gen. Sisowath Sirik Matak, the acting premier during Lon Nol's illness, would continue to run the government.

In Tam said the plan called for Lon Nol to be named president of the council of ministers and Sirik Matak to be "president delegate."

In addition, In Tam said, there would be three vice presidents of the council below the president delegate, and he would be one of them. He did not name the other two.

In Tam said he had been compelled to decline the mandate to form a government "under the present formula," but he gave no further explanation. There had been speculation Sunday night that he had run into trouble with Lt. Col. Lon Nol, Lon Nol's younger brother. Observers thought Lon Nol, who heads the Central Intelligence Agency, might be withholding his support from In Tam to bargain for a top job.

In Tam was the fourth leader Chief of State Cheng Heng asked to form a government.

Ohio Assembly Gets Major Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The waiting game has ended for the 109th General Assembly.

The last working session of last week brought with it Senate approval of a constitutional amendment lowering the voting age in Ohio to 18.

This week the Senate will decide the fate of an omnibus unemployment compensation bill and the House Finance Appropriations Committee will begin its fiscal surgery on the Gilligan administration's $9.1 billion budget.

The unemployment compensation legislation, authored by Sen. Howard Cook, R-1 Toledo, provides a 20 per cent increase in benefits and extension of benefits 13 weeks during periods of high unemployment. Benefits are now available for 26 weeks.

Cook said the measure, if enacted, would bring Ohio law into line with federal regulations passed last year.

Those regulations require extended benefits in all states by January, 1972.

Half of the additional cost would be met by the states, the rest by the federal government.

Passage of the Cook bill would mean that an average family of five, including the unemployed wage earner, would receive $80 a week in state assistance, $14 more than the current allotment.

Employees of state and local governments and non-profit organizations are covered.

A vote on the measure is scheduled Wednesday.

Even while the Senate vote is taking shape, financial surgeons in the House will begin to cut away at Gov. John J. Gilligan's two-year budget request.

At the same time, the lower chamber will start to examine an alternative tax package put before it by organized labor.

Gilligan and labor—specifically the AFL-CIO and the United Auto Workers Union—differ on one major tax point.

The governor wants a personal income tax. Labor does not. Labor's proposal, forced into the House by initiative petition, calls for a seven per cent income tax on corporate profits and tightening of loopholes in the present tax system. Loophole - tightening would include elimination of the direct use exemption for materials and machinery used as an integral part of the manufacturing process.

The bill reportedly would provide the state $505 million a year in new revenue.

Gilligan's tax plan, combining a personal and corporate income tax, will yield more than $1.5 billion in additional revenue, backers say.

The Ohio Chamber of Commerce has labeled the labor plan "bad legislation," claiming it does not take into account existing taxes against business and the consequences of higher business costs that would result from an increased tax burden.

Rogers Takes Aerial Tour Of Jordan Before Talks

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers took an unannounced helicopter tour over part of Jordan today before sitting down with King Hussein to discuss the Arab-Israeli situation.

Government sources said Rogers was flying toward the Jordan valley and north toward the city of Irbid. It was thought likely that the secretary of state would get a look at the lands west of the Jordan River which Israel seized from Jordan in the 1967 war.

It was the first such side trip of Rogers' peace-seeking, tour of the Middle East, and the weather was ideal for it, with the temperature in the balmy 80s and the sky cloudless.

King Hussein did not accompany Rogers on the flight, although the monarch is a skilled pilot.

After a 22 hour stopover in the Jordanian capital, Rogers was flying late this afternoon to Beirut. There seemed to be a greater risk of anti-American demonstrations there than at any other stop on his trip to four Arab states and Israel.

Some protesters from the Al Fatah Guerrilla Organization paraded peacefully through Beirut Sunday with posters proclaiming "Rogers Go Back" and "Freedom for Palestine." But U.S. officials did not anticipate serious trouble.

The secretary of state got his first red carpet welcome since leaving Washington when he flew into Amman Sunday from Riyadh, capital of Saudi Arabia.

Green-bereted troops riding Land Rovers mounted with machine guns escorted Rogers' motorcade from the airport to a royal palace. But there were no signs of protest as a brass and bagpipe band blared its welcome.

Youth Takes Friends Ride In 'New' Car; 9 Are Killed

COVINGTON, Ga. (AP) — Ten youngsters piled into Danny Henderson's "new" car for a Sunday ride. Nine of them died a short time later when a freight train slammed into the compact auto and dragged it almost a mile.

Jimmy Norwood and his sister Almetin were among the victims. So were Peggy Ann Fuller and her sister Susie Ann.

The 10 ranged in age from 12 to 16. The only one spared was Sharon Belcher, 16. She was taken to an Atlanta hospital in critical condition.

The accident at an elevated country road crossing was less than three miles west of their homes in this north central Georgia community of 10,300.

Newton County Sheriff Henry Odum said the car was hit broadside by the lead diesel of a 65-car Georgia Railroad freight train traveling at about 45 miles an hour.

He said the 10-year-old, second-hand vehicle was bent nearly in half by the impact, with the right rear end of the car lacking only five feet of touching the right front wheel.

"They never knew what hit them," Newton County Coroner San Cowan said. "I was in the first ambulance to arrive and, at first glance, I didn't see how there could be any survivors."

Killed were Henderson, 16; Jimmy Norwood, 15; his sister, Almetin, 12; Vickie Gilstrap, 14; Dira Williams, 12; Peggy Ann Fuller, 15; her sister, Susie Ann, 12; Harold Tuggle, 16; and Sheila Height, 14.

Drug Raid Suspects To Appear Today

CINCINNATI (AP) — Four young Cincinnati area residents, arrested during separate drug raids Sunday, were scheduled to appear in Hamilton County Municipal Court today.

In one raid, William Kidwell, 18, and Veronica Gartner, also 18, were booked on charges of unlawful possession of an hallucinogen and illegal possession of an instrument to administer drugs.

In the other raid, Clyde Hamilton, 20, and Marsha Amrein, 19, were charged with possession of dangerous drugs.

Editorial

Circleville School District residents will be voting Tuesday on a $475,000 bond issue to provide additional classroom space. The average annual millage to retire the bonds will be .791, less than four-fifths of a mill.

The bond issue will provide funds to build an additional 11 to 15 class rooms at Circleville High School and at Nicholas Drive School.

A growing enrollment, particularly in the north-end elementary area, is already crowding Atwater and Nicholas Drive Schools. An increase of 80 more students in the high schools for 1971-72 is anticipated.

The Herald believes the proposed building program is in the best interest of the schools, the youth of Circleville and the taxpayers.

Construction costs have been skyrocketing in recent years and no reversal of this trend is foreseen by economists.

The time to build is now before the need becomes critical. Vote "Yes" on Issue I Tuesday.

Pickaway County is being asked tomorrow to pass on two issues which would provide its youngsters with a school to prepare them for jobs immediately upon high school graduation, or give them a job skill to pay their way through college.

To build and staff and operate a vocational training center, citizens of Pickaway, Ross and part of Hocking County are being asked to approve a .6 mill bond issue and 1.7 mill operating levy.

The bond issue will provide the local areas' portion of building costs — $2,300,000. An equal amount has been set aside by the State of Ohio to make a total of $4,600,000 available to construct the plant. The 1.7 mill levy will pay the three counties' share of operation costs while the state provides the remaining 40 per cent.

Voting down both issues will not eliminate the vocational school for Pickaway Countians. Legislation has made participation in some joint vocational district mandatory for every Ohio high school by 1973. Failure at the ballot here would only mean local schools would be assigned to some other district, facing extra busing distances and that vocational district's tax rates.

A "Yes" vote means expanded prospects for your children, grandchildren and your county's future.

Vietnam Reds Hit Camp Near Da Nang

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops made a new shelling attack today on a South Vietnamese military district headquarters south of Da Nang despite heavy losses there Sunday.

For an hour before dawn the enemy gunner fired 60 mortar and recoilless rifle shells into the Dai Loc headquarters 15 miles southwest of Da Nang. A communique said one house was damaged and there were no casualties.

Just 24 hours before, North Vietnamese forces made a ground assault under the cover of darkness against the headquarters. The infantry attack was preceded by a shelling.

Saigon headquarters said the North Vietnamese were repulsed with the help of U.S. air strikes, and 92 of the enemy were killed and two were captured. The South Vietnamese militiamen defending the headquarters reported capturing 33 rifles and 12 heavy weapons.

Field reports said 15 militiamen were killed and 53 were wounded.

Two other actions were reported in the same region.

Five rockets were fired into an artillery base of the U.S. Americal Division four miles southeast of Dai Loc. The U.S. Command said some Americans were wounded, but none were killed.

South Korean marines operating 10 miles southeast of Dai Loc said they rounded up 68 persons suspected of being Viet Cong. A communique said the suspects were hiding in a cave, and enemy booby traps killed four Korean marines.

Police Investigate Fatal Cincy Shooting

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police were investigating the fatal shooting of 53-year-old Charles Gray of Cincinnati and wounding of two other people at a party in an apartment here Sunday.

No arrests had been made in the case.

Carl Butler, 32, and Ruth Suggs, 27, both of the Queen City, were treated at a General Hospital for their wounds and were released.

Fair, Cool Days Seen

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fair and cool weather dominated most of the nation today as sections of the Midwest and South shivered under frosty temperatures.

Frost warnings were hoisted for an area extending from northern Michigan into northeastern Missouri with some frost expected as far south as Kentucky, western Tennessee and northern Arkansas.

Clouds blanketed the Atlantic Coast with light rain spattering the area from New England through Georgia. More than half an inch of rain dampened Cape Hatteras, N.C., during the night.

A few showers sprinkled Nevada and California but cloudy weather prevailed over the Rockies and central Pacific Coast.

Elsewhere, the weather remained mostly fair and dry.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 28 at Duluth, Minn., to 76 at Key West, Fla.

Ohio Assembly Gets Major Work

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The waiting game has ended for the 109th General Assembly.

The last working session of last week brought with it Senate approval of a constitutional amendment lowering the voting age in Ohio to 18.

This week the Senate will decide the fate of an omnibus unemployment compensation bill and the House Finance Appropriations Committee will begin its fiscal surgery on the Gilligan administration's $9.1 billion budget.

The unemployment compensation legislation, authored by Sen. Howard Cook, R-1 Toledo, provides a 20 per cent increase in benefits and extension of benefits 13 weeks during periods of high unemployment. Benefits are now available for 26 weeks.

Cook said the measure, if enacted, would bring Ohio law into line with federal regulations passed last year.

Those regulations require extended benefits in all states by January, 1972.

King Hussein did not accompany Rogers on the flight, although the monarch is a skilled pilot.

After a 22 hour stopover in the Jordanian capital, Rogers was flying late this afternoon to Beirut. There seemed to be a greater risk of anti-American demonstrations there than at any other stop on his trip to four Arab states and Israel.

Some protesters from the Al Fatah Guerrilla Organization paraded peacefully through Beirut Sunday with posters proclaiming "Rogers Go Back" and "Freedom for Palestine." But U.S. officials did not anticipate serious trouble.

The secretary of state got his first red carpet welcome since leaving Washington when he flew into Amman Sunday from Riyadh, capital of Saudi Arabia.

Green-bereted troops riding Land Rovers mounted with machine guns escorted Rogers' motorcade from the airport to a royal palace. But there were no signs of protest as a brass and bagpipe band blared its welcome.

Youth Takes Friends Ride In 'New' Car; 9 Are Killed

COVINGTON, Ga. (AP) — Ten youngsters piled into Danny Henderson's "new" car for a Sunday ride. Nine of them died a short time later when a freight train slammed into the compact auto and dragged it almost a mile.

Jimmy Norwood and his sister Almetin were among the victims. So were Peggy Ann Fuller and her sister Susie Ann.

The 10 ranged in age from 12 to 16. The only one spared was Sharon Belcher, 16. She was taken to an Atlanta hospital in critical condition.

The accident at an elevated country road crossing was less than three miles west of their homes in this north central Georgia community of 10,300.

Newton County Sheriff Henry Odum said the car was hit broadside by the lead diesel of a 65-car Georgia Railroad freight train traveling at about 45 miles an hour.

He said the 10-year-old, second-hand vehicle was bent nearly in half by the impact, with the right rear end of the car lacking only five feet of touching the right front wheel.

"They never knew what hit them," Newton County Coroner San Cowan said. "I was in the first ambulance to arrive and, at first glance, I didn't see how there could be any survivors."

Killed were Henderson, 16; Jimmy Norwood, 15; his sister, Almetin, 12; Vickie Gilstrap, 14; Dira Williams, 12; Peggy Ann Fuller, 15; her sister, Susie Ann, 12; Harold Tuggle, 16; and Sheila Height, 14.

Drug Raid Suspects To Appear Today

CINCINNATI (AP) — Four young Cincinnati area residents, arrested during separate drug raids Sunday, were scheduled to appear in Hamilton County Municipal Court today.

In one raid, William Kidwell, 18, and Veronica Gartner, also 18, were booked on charges of unlawful possession of an hallucinogen and illegal possession of an instrument to administer drugs.

In the other raid, Clyde Hamilton, 20, and Marsha Amrein, 19, were charged with possession of dangerous drugs.

Editorial

Circleville School District residents will be voting Tuesday on a $475,000 bond issue to provide additional classroom space. The average annual millage to retire the bonds will be .791, less than four-fifths of a mill.

The bond issue will provide funds to build an additional 11 to 15 class rooms at Circleville High School and at Nicholas Drive School.

A growing enrollment, particularly in the north-end elementary area, is already crowding Atwater and Nicholas Drive Schools. An increase of 80 more students in the high school for 1971-72 is anticipated.

The Herald believes the proposed building program is in the best interest of the schools, the youth of Circleville and the taxpayers.

Construction costs have been skyrocketing in recent years and no reversal of this trend is foreseen by economists.

The time to build is now before the need becomes critical. Vote "Yes" on Issue I Tuesday.

Pickaway County is being asked tomorrow to pass on two issues which would provide its youngsters with a school to prepare them for jobs immediately upon high school graduation, or give them a job skill to pay their way through college.

To build and staff and operate a vocational training center, citizens of Pickaway, Ross and part of Hocking County are being asked to approve a .6 mill bond issue and 1.7 mill operating levy.

The bond issue will provide the local areas' portion of building costs — $2,300,000. An equal amount has been set aside by the State of Ohio to make a total of $4,600,000 available to construct the plant. The 1.7 mill levy will pay the three counties' share of operation costs while the state provides the remaining 40 per cent.

Voting down both issues will not eliminate the vocational school for Pickaway Countians. Legislation has made participation in some joint vocational district mandatory for every Ohio high school by 1973. Failure at the ballot here would only mean local schools would be assigned to some other district, facing extra busing distances and that vocational district's tax rates.

A "Yes" vote means expanded prospects for your children, grandchildren and your county's future.

Vietnam Reds Hit Camp Near Da Nang

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops made a new shelling attack today on a South Vietnamese military district headquarters south of Da Nang despite heavy losses there Sunday.

For an hour before dawn the enemy gunner fired 60 mortar and recoilless rifle shells into the Dai Loc headquarters 15 miles southwest of Da Nang. A communiqué said one house was damaged and there were no casualties.

Just 24 hours before, North Vietnamese forces made a ground assault under the cover of darkness against the headquarters. The infantry attack was preceded by a shelling.

Saigon headquarters said the North Vietnamese were repulsed with the help of U.S. air strikes, and 92 of the enemy were killed and two were captured. The South Vietnamese militiamen defending the headquarters reported capturing 33 rifles and 12 heavy weapons.

Field reports said 15 militiamen were killed and 53 were wounded.

Two other actions were reported in the same region.

Five rockets were fired into an artillery base of the U.S. American Division four miles southeast of Dai Loc. The U.S. Command said some Americans were wounded, but none were killed.

South Korean marines operating 10 miles southeast of Dai Loc said they rounded up 68 persons suspected of being Viet Cong. A communiqué said the suspects were hiding in a cave, and enemy booby traps killed four Korean marines.

Police Investigate Fatal Cincy Shooting

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police were investigating the fatal shooting of 53-year-old Charles Gray of Cincinnati and wounding of two other people at a party in an apartment here Sunday.

No arrests had been made in the case.

Carl Butler, 32, and Ruth Suggs, 27, both of the Queen City, were treated at a General Hospital for their wounds and were released.

Fair, Cool Days Seen

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fair and cool weather dominated most of the nation today as sections of the Midwest and South shivered under frosty temperatures.

Frost warnings were hoisted for an area extending from northern Michigan into northeastern Missouri with some frost expected as far south as Kentucky, western Tennessee and northern Arkansas.

Clouds blanketed the Atlantic Coast with light rain spattering the area from New England through Georgia. More than half an inch of rain dampened Cape Hatteras, N.C., during the night.

A few showers sprinkled Nevada and California but cloudy weather prevailed over the Rockies and central Pacific Coast.

Elsewhere, the weather remained mostly fair and dry.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 28 at Duluth, Minn. to 76 at Key West, Fla.

Fees Increased In County For Sewage, Hauler Permits

An increase in sewage permit application fees and hauler permit fees was approved Friday by Pickaway County Board of Health. The fee for applying for a permit for installation will be $15. Sewage hauler permits, $10.

The increases were deemed necessary to help cover additional travel expenses of the county sanitarian who is required to approve and inspect all construction, installation, connection, alterations or extensions of household sewage disposal systems in the county and to regulate hauler methods.

Applications for permits are made to the health commissioner.

Stricter adherence to health department regulations concerning sewage disposal will be enforced, according to board members. Obsolete, ineffective systems installed prior to regulations and violators of regulations continue to plague the health board and are considered as matters of priority concern.

THE board recommended action be taken by Sanitarian T. D. Blaney to proceed in efforts to locate source of sewage being disposed through field tile of a Perrill Road resident; to effect a 15-day extension, only, on the May 1 installation of a sewage system for a trailer park in Era and proceed, if necessary with proper action for non-compliance; to assist residents of Williamsport by checking and making recommendations for health and sanitation practices to adopt for keeping animals within the village.

Complaints have reached the health department concerning livestock in the village. There is no restrictive ordinance and the health department has no authority to remove livestock.

In answer to a request by interested Williamsport citizens, Blaney will inspect Williamsport School for the Citizen's Committee report.

All county schools are inspected twice a year by the sanitarian as required by law.

To restrict illegal dumping throughout the county, the board advised that the sanitarian replace all "no dumping" signs in areas where dumping is illegally practiced.

Board members also approved the sanitarian's continued attendance at solid waste meetings in Waverly.

COUNTY Health Nurse Helen Pickens reported on vision testing in Teays Valley and Washington Twp. Schools. Mothers screened 428 pupils, 106 were rescreened by Mrs. Pickens and 27 referred to a doctor.

Pre-school clinics were held in Williamsport, Jackson, Monroe and Derby schools. Seventy-five children were screened; and referrals were made as necessary for 16 of the children.

Forty-two home visits were made by the nurse during April to crippled children, cancer patients, for health promotion and investigation of venereal disease cases.

Michigan Man Cited In Crash

A Michigan motorist was cited by Highway Patrol in a two car crash multiple-injury on Route 23 Saturday.

Injured were the wife and son of Raymond E. Jenkins, 32, of Detroit and the driver of the other vehicle, John W. Stepp, 53, of Route 3. All the injuries were minor and were not treated.

Jenkins was headed south on Route 23 when he pulled into the passing lane to overtake slower traffic. He failed to notice Stepp, who was slowing to enter a cross-over.

Damage to the rear of Stepp's 1968 pickup truck and the Jenkins' 1969 van was heavy. Jenkins was cited by Highway Patrolmen for failure to keep assured clear distance.

Sheriff Deputies Investigate Thefts

Pickaway County Sheriff's Department is investigating three thefts in the county.

Floyd Woods of New Holland reported the theft of a spare tire and tools from the trunk of his car Saturday evening.

The car was parked in the parking lot of a New Holland tavern where the theft took place. Value was set at $151.

Ernest B. Compton of Columbus notified the sheriff's department of the theft of a registered Hereford heifer Friday night from his farm on the Harrisburg-Fairfield Road. Value was $300.

Steve Fisher of Route 4 reported the theft of clothing, a class ring and money from his locker at Logan Elm High School last week.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS — Two area high school senior girls received scholarships Saturday at the Ohio Elks Assn. Convention held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati. Attending the youth luncheon where state winners were announced were, from left: Franklin Rhoads, Mary Beth Rhoads, Beth Rooker, Marion Rooker and John Fissell, youth activities chairman of the local lodge.

Two Area High School Girls Win Ohio Elks Scholarship

Two area high school girls sponsored by the Circleville BPO Elks Lodge 77 were awarded scholarships during the Saturday Youth Day Luncheon of the Ohio Elks Assn. held in conjunction with the annual state convention.

Mary Beth Rhoads, a Circleville High School senior, was second in state competition in the Youth Leadership Contest. Beth Rooker, a senior at Logan Elm High School, was one of 20 most valuable student scholarship winners.

Miss Rhoads was awarded $300 by the Ohio Elks Assn., received a $50 bond for being the South Central District winner, a $25 bond from the state association for winning on the local lodge level and will also receive a $50 bond from the local lodge.

She plans to attend Marietta College.

MISS Rooker received a $600 scholarship payable to the college of her choice. The scholarship is one of 368 throughout the nation paid by the Elks National Foundation. She plans to attend DePauw University.

This is the first time the local lodge has had a runnerup in the leadership contest and a winner in the most valuable student contest according to John F. Fissell, youth activities chairman of the lodge.

The Circleville Lodge also won first place in Youth Activities Scrapbook in their division. There are four divisions depending upon lodge membership. Circleville Lodge finished third in state competition, entitling them to enter the national competition. Other

Stock Prices Nosedive

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market prices took a nosedive today as more investors began cashing in on recent profits.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks at noon was off 11.45 points to 930.39.

Declines outnumbered advances on the New York Stock Exchange by more than 2 to 1.

Analysts said investors had grown uneasy after the market's recent gains and were doing some profit taking.

The slow volume was a good sign, analysts said, indicating that the selling had not turned into a wholesale rout.

Stocks were generally lower in all categories except for utilities and metals, which were mixed.

All Women Air Race Under Way

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Don Scott Airport officials said "everything went beautifully" today at the start of the 1971 International All - Women Air Race that will end Thursday in Nicaragua.

Thirty entrants began departing at 9 a.m. and all were off the ground in 30 minutes. Each plane had a pilot and a navigator.

Protesters

it disobedience, but even before dawn it turned into a series of hit-an-run clashes with riot-equipped police.

"The police and military are keeping the upper hand but they are having their hands full," said a city hall spokesman.

Lining up the four major bridges linking Virginia with the capital were an estimated 2,000 marines and Army troops, standing almost shoulder to shoulder and holding rifles with sheathed bayonets.

During a normal rush hour, the bridges carry 76,000 cars. Traffic on the bridges was stopped at times, but generally it was about like any other Monday morning flow of suburban commuters heading for jobs in the city.

Hundreds of the commuters were caught in clouds of tear gas fired by police to disperse demonstrators in Georgetown and in the area near the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials and the Washington Monument. Like the protesters, they held hankchiefs to streaming eyes and stinging noses.

Some motorists said they were 30 minutes to 45 minutes late reaching work, but others who left home early met no delays. A bus driver said he was running an hour late on his route from the suburbs.

Near George Washington University, traffic on Pennsylvania Avenue was halted when protesters pushed autos, park benches and trash barrels into the street. Police threw tear gas canisters, and one officer pulled his pistol but did not fire. Later a squad of soldiers retreated in quick step from a charging crowd of 500 which had gathered on the GW campus.

Five blocks away the White House was circled by police and few demonstrators were seen.

In front of the plush Watergate Apartment complex, home of Atty. Gen. John Mitchell and other government leaders, a dozen men dressed in civilian clothes rushed to the aid of a policeman who had been tackled by a husky demonstrator.

Dozens of demonstrators and police were injured in the clashes.

At Mayday quarters, the demonstration's planners were guarded in their appraisal of the events. "We had an awful lot of opposition today," said Carol Martin of the Mayday press office.

"Police pretty well anticipated everything, but it was still fairly successful."

Demonstrators were arrested by the hundreds at a variety of locations across the city. Police used buses and rental vans as well as paddy wagons, to haul them away.

The city's jails were quickly filled to overflowing. Police then began taking busloads of prisoners to the Washington Redskins' football practice field and to the D.C. Jail exercise yard.

Every year in Britain two million civil legal actions are brought and almost as many people are prosecuted for crimes, a government report showed.

SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS — Two area high school girls received scholarships Saturday at the Ohio Elks Assn. Convention held at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel, Cincinnati. Attending the youth luncheon where state winners were announced were, from the left: Franklin Rhoads, Mary Beth Rhoads, Beth Rooker, Marion Rooker and John Fissell, youth activities chairman of the local lodge.

Two Area High School Girls Win Ohio Elks Scholarship

Two area high school girls sponsored by the Circleville BPO Elks Lodge 77 were awarded scholarships during the Saturday Youth Day Luncheon of the Ohio Elks Assn. held in conjunction with the annual state convention.

Mary Beth Rhoads, a Circleville High School senior, was second in state competition in the Youth Leadership Contest. Beth Rooker, a senior at Logan Elm High School, was one of 20 most valuable student scholarship winners.

Miss Rhoads was awarded $300 by the Ohio Elks Assn., received a $50 bond from the South Central District winner, a $25 bond from the state association for winning on the local lodge level and will also receive a $50 bond from the local lodge.

She plans to attend Marietta College.

MISS Rooker received a $600 scholarship payable to the college of her choice. The scholarship is one of 368 throughout the nation paid by the Elks National Foundation. She plans to attend DePauw University.

This is the first time the local lodge has had a runner-up in the leadership contest and a winner in the most valuable student contest according to John F. Fissell, youth activities chairman of the lodge.

The Circleville Lodge also won first place in Youth Activities Scrapbook in their division. There are four divisions depending upon lodge membership. Circleville Lodge finished third in state competition, entitling them to enter the national competition. Other

75 Cases Filed In Municipal Court Today

Circleville Municipal Court filed 75 new cases today and reported that $1,005 had been left with the City Police Department in bonds posted for traffic violations.

Friday, Donald Bruce Dodson, 28, Grovetown, was fined $150 and costs for driving while intoxicated, $50 and costs for driving when he had no license and $50 and costs for speeding $100 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone.

In addition he was sentenced to three days in the Pickaway County Jail and had his driving rights suspended for six months. Arthur Wilkin, 59, 151 E. High St., was fined $15 and costs for driving an unsafe motor vehicle. The fine was suspended by Judge Sterling Lamb.

Norman Gerald Long, 27, 86 Stahl Ave., was fined $25 and costs for following another car too closely. The fine was suspended by the judge.

Herbert L. Parker, 25, 405 N. Pickaway St., was fined $25 and costs with $10 of the fine suspended for reckless operation.

Forfeiting bonds posted for speeding were: John A. Ankrom, 50, Route 4, $19 for speeding 70 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone; Lloyd Crosby, 28, 225 Walnut St., $24 for speeding 75 miles per hour in a 60 mile zone.

Construction Area Scene Of Collision

Highway Patrol released report of a minor injury accident which occurred Thursday in the northern section of Pickaway County.

Cars operated by William C. Trimble, 51, and Linda Ann Warner, 26, both of the Ashville area were headed south on Route 762 just east of the Route 23 intersection. As they neared a construction zone, Trimble slowed behind traffic. Miss Warner was unable to stop and struck the rear of Trimble's auto. Both vehicles suffered moderate damages. Trimble received light injuries, but did not seek treatment.

The collision was reported to the post Saturday. No citations have been issued.

Disc Injuries

In survey after survey the chiropractic profession reports satisfactory results in over 90 per cent of disc injury cases through the use of spinal corrective adjustments.

Workmen's Compensation statistics show that chiropractic care for on-the-job back injuries reduce cost of care, compensation, and work days lost by 50 to 70 per cent.

Contact your doctor or chiropractor immediately if a disc injury is suspected.

state winners were Warren and Marysville.

Local persons attending the youth day luncheon in Cincinnati were Mary Beth Rhoads and her father, Franklin Rhoads; Beth Rooker and her father Marion Rooker; Dr. and Mrs. David Goldschmidt and John Fissell.

Speaker at the luncheon was Gerald Powell of the Grand Lodge Committee, chairman of Youth Leadership awards.

Police pretty well anticipated everything, but it was still fairly successful.

Demonstrators were arrested by the hundreds at a variety of locations across the city. Police used buses and rental vans as well as paddy wagons, to haul them away.

The city's jails were quickly filled to overflowing. Police then began taking busloads of prisoners to the Washington Redskins' football practice field and to the D.C. Jail exercise yard.

Every year in Britain two million civil legal actions are brought and almost as many people are prosecuted for crimes, a government report showed.

For further evidence, the Keatons' attorney, Leo Hall, intends to have the testimony of a witness who has admitted to the break-in while being interrogated by city police for other crimes throughout the city.

A twelve-member jury of five women and seven men was empaneled this morning to hear the case. In order to complete the jury, clerks completely exhausted the list of 30 citizens who were called to serve.

il disobedience, but even before dawn it turned into a series of hit-and-run clashes with riot-equipped police.

"The police and military are keeping the upper hand but they are having their hands full," said a city hall spokesman.

Lining up the four major bridges linking Virginia with the capital were an estimated 2,000 marines and Army troops, standing almost shoulder to shoulder and holding rifles with sheathed bayonets.

During a normal rush hour, the bridges carry 76,000 cars. Traffic on the bridges was stopped at times, but generally it was about like any other Monday morning flow of suburban commuters heading for jobs in the city.

Hundreds of the commuters were caught in clouds of tear gas fired by police to disperse demonstrators in Georgetown and in the area near the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials and the Washington Monument. Like the protesters, they held handkerchiefs to streaming eyes and stinging noses.

Some motorists said they were 30 minutes to 45 minutes late reaching work, but others who left home early met no delays. A bus driver said he was running an hour late on his route from the suburbs.

Near George Washington University, traffic on Pennsylvania Avenue was halted when protesters pushed autos, park benches and trash barrels into the street. Police threw tear gas canisters, and one officer pulled his pistol but did not fire. Later a squad of soldiers retreated in quick step from a charging crowd of 500 which had gathered on the GW campus.

Five blocks away the White House was circled by police and few demonstrators were seen.

In front of the plush Watergate Apartment complex, home of Atty. Gen. John Mitchell and other government leaders, a dozen men dressed in civilian clothes rushed to the aid of a policeman who had been tackled by a husky demonstrator.

Dozens of demonstrators and police were injured in the clashes.

At Mayday quarters, the demonstration's planners were guarded in their appraisal of the events. "We had an awful lot of opposition today," said Carol Martin of the Mayday press office.

"Police pretty well anticipated everything, but it was still fairly successful."

Demonstrators were arrested by the hundreds at a variety of locations across the city. Police used buses and rental vans as well as paddy wagons, to haul them away.

The city's jails were quickly filled to overflowing. Police then began taking busloads of prisoners to the Washington Redskins' football practice field and to the D.C. Jail exercise yard.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

The feeling that the "good old days" were better than today has probably been expressed in every generation. In the future, people will look back on these times and call them good; so long not for the past but appreciate today.

Senior Play Big Success

"They said it couldn't be done, but we did it!" This is the sentiment of 25 seniors who recently produced Westfall's first musical, "The Matchmaker" by Thornton Wilder with the music and dancing from "Hello, Dolly."

The seniors had approximately four weeks to produce this four-act play which meant day and night practice. Many times practice time was devoted to set building, as the actors and actresses were the ones who built the sets.

Highlights of the scenery were the built-up stage in the first act that contained a trap door and the folding screen located in the third act.

The second and third acts kept the audience in stitches on Friday night. But this was to be outdone when during the first act on Saturday night, Dolly (Sally Minor) slammed the door so hard at Horace (Terry Rogers) that the door fell flat on top of him and literally brought down the house.

The audience continued their laughing throughout the rest of the play, which ended with a curtain call of all the songs of the musical. Roses were then given to Dolly and the rest of the girls of the cast. The cast expressed their thanks to Miss Ford for her help and presented her with a gift.

All who attended the play enjoyed themselves and many expressed comments of the play being the best ever presented at WHS.

Prom, Banquet Preparations Are Underway

Preparations for this year's Westfall Junior-Senior Banquet are already under way. This annual event will be held on May 22.

Many decisions for this highlight of the school year have already been made. The menu includes turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, jello, rolls, iced tea and apple pie with ice cream.

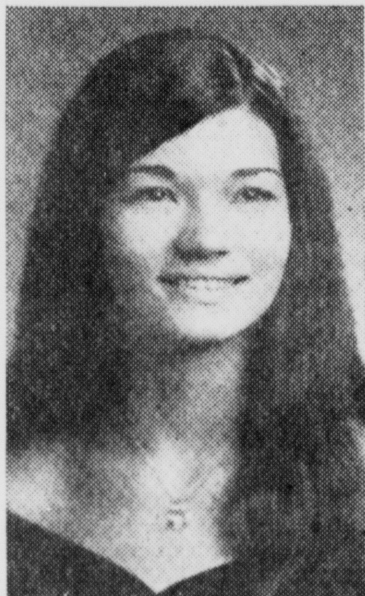

The dance will be highlighted with the presence of the now famous "Mod Squad."

After the prom, a party will be held from 1-4 a.m. at the Stardust Bowling Alley in Grove City. Students must arrive at this party by 2 a.m. and will not be permitted back in if they leave.

A breakfast to be held early the next morning is still in the planning stage.

Cheryl Named To State FTA Office

Cheryl Miller was given a high honor April 24 when she and four other students attended the State Future Teacher Association Convention.

CHERYL MILLER

The convention was an all-day affair on the Otterbein Campus at Westerville. The honor — Cheryl was elected State Vice President, a first for Westfall.

The day began when the five — Chuck Kennedy, Carol Clem, Barb Justus, president Jerrold Fields and Cheryl — started out at 7:30 so they could arrive in time for registration and to get the very necessary campaigning started. Floor nominations and campaign speeches began at 10 a.m. with thirteen candidates shaking in their boots.

After speeches, various seminars took place throughout the campus to familiarize the representatives of the Ohio School with Otterbein. After a delicious lunch and fabulous entertainment by the "Opus Zero," a group from Otterbein, there was a fascinating talk given by two "Trustees" from the college on the new student government.

Finally came the all-important announcement: the new 1971-72 slate of officers. It was a very surprising announcement for Miss Miller and our congratulations are sent out to her for a fine job.

The record will include such numbers from the concert band as Holiday Fanfare and March, Medieval Fresco, Festivo, trumpets, Ole, We've Only Just Begun and Overture from Tommy.

The Marching Band will record 25 or 6 to 4, Mod Squad, Sloopy and National French Defile which will be followed by the Stage Band's recording of Close to You, Sunday Morning, Get Together and When I Fall in Love.

For purchase of the record, contact any WHS Band member.

Currently much activity is at work in the WHS band. The goal is a record of the band's accomplishments. This record, made April 29 with the Musical Recording Co. of Columbus, will be sold by the band members on presale.

Trail Talk

Did Roxanne Hulse, Becky Overly, and Janet Carle really skip English class because they had never been in trouble their four years at Westfall and wanted something for their memory books?

Congratulations, Ron Greenwood, on passing your Air Force physical when you can't even take phys. ed!

Is Harry Linton really small but mighty?

Larry Kempton has been accepted at OSU.

Congratulations to Cheryl Miller on being elected State FTA Vice-President.

Good luck to the baseball team on May 6 when they play West Jefferson in the tournament!

Congratulations Roy Bailey on getting an "A" in phys. ed—knew you could do it!

Is the Rocket Club really selling tickets to the moon?

Club Sponsors Latin Banquet

Snake charmers... dancers... gladiator fights? Could these be evidence of craftiness by the Latin Club?

Sure enough, on April 21, the Latin Club held their annual banquet. The two Latin dancers who entertained the feast were Mickey Horn and Becki Easterday. A thrilling gladiator fight between Chuck Adams and Harry Linton resulted in a victory for little Harry. Harry then defeated adviser, Mr. Bolman.

The typical Roman dinner consisted of chicken, corn, rolls, nut bread and honey, escalloped potatoes and iced tea or coffee.

By the way, the Latin Club members thought Mr. Bolman looked awfully nice in his Roman sheet!

Two Juniors Attend Region Science Fair

Phil Karn, a junior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Karn, and Scott Van Horn, also a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adkins, were the Westfall representatives to the Central Ohio Regional Science Fair. The Central Ohio Science Fair displayed projects of more than 50 high school students.

The Central Ohio Fair, affiliated with the International Science Fair was held at Otterbein and was jointly sponsored by Otterbein and the Columbus Labs of Battelle Memorial Institute.

The students competed for 16 different awards. The top two medal winners each year go, all expenses paid, to the International Science Fair in Kansas City, Mo. Other awards were presented by government agencies, publishing companies, professional groups, industry, military services and organizations.

Phil and Scott presented their fine projects. Phil's project was "The Modern Beef Machine."

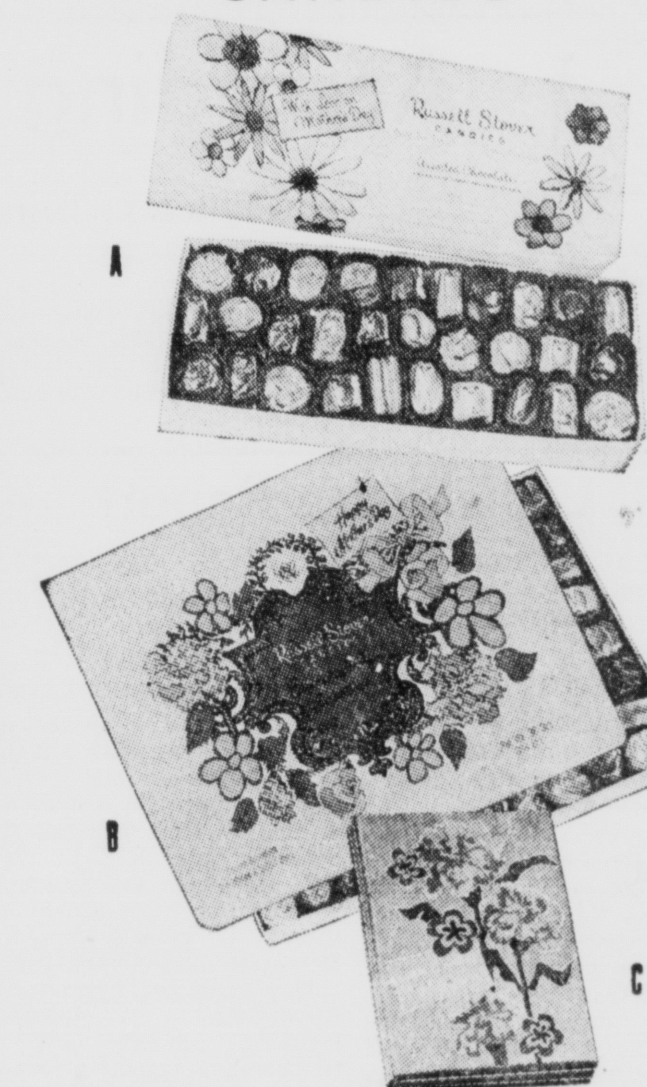

He explained, among other topics, the types of beef, cuts of beef and the newer methods of grading beef. Scott's project was entitled "Ocean Engineering." His research included much information on newer methods and techniques used to study the ocean. He also explained the purpose of numerous types of underwater devices of which he had made models.

These boys both are to be commended on their participation in this annual event.

Latin Banquet

Snake charmers... dancers... gladiator fights? Could these be evidence of craftiness by the Latin Club?

Sure enough, on April 21, the Latin Club held their annual banquet. The two Latin dancers who entertained the feast were Mickey Horn and Becki Easterday. A thrilling gladiator fight between Chuck Adams and Harry Linton resulted in a victory for little Harry. Harry then defeated adviser, Mr. Bolman.

The typical Roman dinner consisted of chicken, corn, rolls, nut bread and honey, escalloped potatoes and iced tea or coffee.

By the way, the Latin Club members thought Mr. Bolman looked awfully nice in his Roman sheet!

Two Juniors Attend Region Science Fair

Phil Karn, a junior, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Karn, and Scott Van Horn, also a junior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Adkins, were the Westfall representatives to the Central Ohio Regional Science Fair. The Central Ohio Science Fair displayed projects of more than 50 high school students.

The Central Ohio Fair, affiliated with the International Science Fair was held at Otterbein and was jointly sponsored by Otterbein and the Columbus Labs of Battelle Memorial Institute.

The students competed for 16 different awards. The top two medal winners each year go, all expenses paid, to the International Science Fair in Kansas City, Mo. Other awards were presented by government agencies, publishing companies, professional groups, industry, military services and organizations.

Phil and Scott presented their fine projects. Phil's project was "The Modern Beef Machine." He explained, among other topics, the types of beef, cuts of beef and the newer methods of grading beef. Scott's project was entitled "Ocean Engineering." His research included much information on newer methods and techniques used to study the ocean. He also explained the purpose of numerous types of underwater devices of which he had made models.

These boys both are to be commended on their participation in this annual event.

Four Honored By Rotary

Two juniors and two seniors were recently asked to come and observe three meetings of the Rotary Club. These students were chosen by their participation in social studies and their activities. Seniors Randy Alkire and Greg Rickabaugh were selected with juniors Mike Hegarty and John Valone.

They attended three meetings and listened to speeches on "Blood - Donation," "Water Conservation," and "Australia." They were asked to give a speech at the second meeting.

These students received a "Youth Merit Award" at a luncheon after the third meeting.

Prom, Banquet Preparations Are Underway

Preparations for this year's Westfall Junior-Senior Banquet are already under way. This annual event will be held on May 22.

Many decisions for this highlight of the school year have already been made. The menu includes turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, jello, rolls, iced tea and apple pie with ice cream.

The dance will be highlighted with the presence of the now famous "Mod Squad."

After the prom, a party will be held from 1-4 a.m. at the Stardust Bowling Alley in Grove City. Students must arrive at this party by 2 a.m. and will not be permitted back in if they leave.

A breakfast to be held early the next morning is still in the planning stage.

Three and one-half billion dollars spent in 15 years for water control programs may seem like a large amount, but considering the scope of the work in pollution control to be done in the United States, it is not. One of Ralph Nader's task forces reached the conclusion, after 21 months of study that the federal government's water control efforts have been almost a complete failure.

Individual conclusions by the task force are equally dismal: Lake Superior may die faster than Lake Erie if effective control measures are not adopted; the government itself is a major polluter; the U. S. is deteriorating into a virtual water wasteland, and few dangerous contaminants are removed from drinking water by present treatment methods.

Impatience may be a virtue when it comes to preserving natural resources, particularly one as important as fresh water. But it ought to be remembered that only recently has the nation truly become aware of the immensity of the problem and begun to take steps to correct abuses.

This is not a campaign which is going to be won overnight and even the critics ought to realize by now that a mighty lake or river poses a mammoth cleaning operation far more complex than any conservation effort previously undertaken.

Legislature Report

By MYRL H. SHOEMAKER
State Representative

Nearly all of Ohio's big city Mayors were present or represented in Columbus this week at a meeting with legislative leaders of the Ohio General Assembly to discuss details of the new budget for the coming fiscal year.

A number of the mayors evidently felt that the proposed budget did not do enough for the cities. Recently, the costs of municipal government have skyrocketed. Inner city problems such as drug abuse, pollution, crime, and housing have grown daily — until presently, many of Ohio's cities are on the verge of bankruptcy.

If action is not taken, our cities will become disaster areas — unfit for human habitation. I think we in the legislature all realize this and will do our best to work with the mayors to solve these problems.

Nine hundred, seventy-five bills have been introduced in the Ohio House of Representatives. April 13 was the final day for bills to be introduced in the House in this session of the 109th General Assembly.

Many of the 975 bills in the House have not been referred to committee, or if they have been referred, have not been heard. The House has passed approximately thirty bills. The General Assembly has passed five Acts.

The main cause for this agonizingly slow legislative pace is partisan politics. The House and Senate are controlled by Republicans and the Governor is a Democrat. The Republican leadership in the General Assembly has reduced the legislative work week from three nights and three days to two nights and three days. They have recessed the Assembly for a total of five weeks, during which some committees met, but no bills could be voted on on the floor. They have said that we shall recess from mid-July to mid-September and then adjourn at the end of October or early November.

In addition to the workweek reductions, they slow down the legislative machine. They control all the standing committees. Their power is most evident in the Reference Committee and the Rules Committee. The Reference Committee sends bills to committees for hearings, but it has been holding up the bills. The Rules Committee schedules floor debate on bills reported out of committee, but we have a back-log of reported bills awaiting scheduling. Of the 33 bills the Rules Committee has scheduled for floor debate, only three bills were sponsored by Democrats and they passed.

The struggle between the Republican dominated legislative branch and the Democratic executive branch, could have severe consequences for the people of Ohio. The crisis in financing state services and levels of state support in education, as well as the problem of re-structuring Ohio's tax system, require constructive bi-partisan cooperation. A policy of obstructionism will result in another biennium of chaos and crisis in state financing.

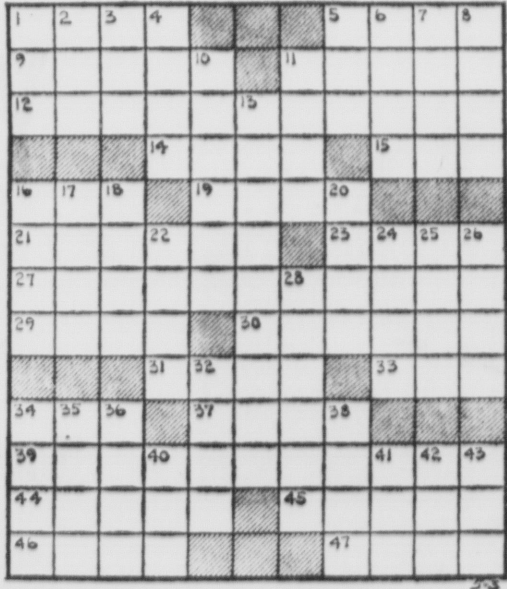

Last week, the State Government Committee began hearings on H.B. 137 and H.B. 494, bills which separate the Division of Mental Hygiene and Corrections into two cabinet level departments. These bills will go to a sub-committee for refinement into a committee bill for this purpose. I will support the bill in its final form.

The House Ways and Means Committee is working on H.B. 477, the tax bill. So far we have heard the Finance Director, Tax Commissioner and a number of proponents for the bill. Next week we will hear the opponents. We must produce a tax bill, either H.B. 477 or some alternate by mid-May.

A COMELY lass who labors after a fashion at a branch brokerage office (there ARE a few of them left!) has switched back from those awful midis to the more revealing, comfortable, and alluring minis. "I've been in trouble," she explained to Bob Sylvester, "ever since the office staff started to watch my work instead of my legs."

In one of those restaurants whose decor is governed by scores of autographed pictures of celebrities on the walls, a practical joker slipped a photograph of his wife into one of the frames, then, while she was standing beside him, asked the headwaiter, "Who is that beautiful creature?" Unhesitatingly, the headwaiter answered, "Sophia Loren."

The practical joker laughed heartily—but a week later his wife walked out on him and jetted to Hollywood!

Miss B.S.K., Utah

Dear Miss K.: The history of Caesarean section, as such a delivery is known, is said to have originated with the birth of Julius Caesar. Through an incision in the abdominal wall, the uterus or womb, is opened and the infant extracted.

Modern surgical techniques and the use of antibiotics make this operation very safe for normal, healthy women.

The decision for this operation is made only after careful calculation by the obstetrician. For example, a candidate for this technique would be a woman who has some deformity of the pelvic bones that would make normal delivery through the vaginal canal difficult.

In some unusual conditions, the baby's head may be too big for a small pelvis. This disproportion could be seen by X-ray before the time of delivery.

Occasionally, an unusual complication such as the early separation of the placenta from the wall of the womb may necessitate a rapid delivery to insure the safety of mother and child.

GOP And The Young Vote

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The 18-to-21-year-old voters obtained their franchise under a Republican Administration, and it was validated by the Nixon Supreme Court. So, biting the hands that have fed them their new voting freedom, the young have told Mr. Gallup's pollsters (as of April 17) that they are 42 per cent Democratic, 42 per cent Independent and only 16 per cent Republican. The White House is naturally concerned, but the president can hardly make an issue of it directly without laying himself open to the charge of interfering with the individual's sacred right to his own political preferences.

So what are the Republicans to do? The older ones sit on their hands, but three youthful Republican national legislators from Connecticut, Senator Lowell Weicker and Representatives Robert Steele and Stewart McKinney, all of them first-termers in their respective Congressional jobs, have come up with an indirect strategy that might make hay for their party. They have set up a program for 18-to-21 summer political internship that, for sheer size, beats anything that Washington has ever seen in its particular category.

The proposition has been worked out with the Republican Town Committees and the Connecticut service clubs — Rotary, the Lions, Kiwanis and the like — to pick three hundred young people and send them to Washington this summer to work for the three Republican officeholders on Capitol Hill. Each "scholarship" will be good for $150 and a week's intensive employment, plus evening introduction to social affairs of a generally political nature. The service clubs have been told to make their selections on a nonpartisan basis, even to picking kids from the so-called counter-culture who don't believe in the efficacy of working "within the system."

If the money is forthcoming Weicker, Steele and McKinney are even prepared to accommodate as many as 400 internes, and would take 15-to-18-year-olds in cases of special interest.

Connecticut politicians of both parties helped defeat the original attempt to commit their state to the 18-to-21 franchise.

Since the Supreme Court has validated the Congressional grant of the vote to the young for Federal elections without waiting for a Constitutional amendment, there has been considerable searching of the heart in all of the states that had refused to make election law changes. Some Republicans have given ground grudgingly, even though Nixon supported the 18-year-old aspirations from the start. The Republican Town Committee of Torrington, Conn., for example, wanted to censure Senator Weicker for advocating the extension of the franchise to 18-year-olds in state elections as well as in national. Taking the bull by the horns, Weicker went to Torrington and did his best to explain that the downward extension of the franchise was a new "fact of life," and if Republicans refused to accommodate themselves to the change the party could never build loyal young cadres for the future.

The voting habits of the young have always been erratic, what with failures to register and frequent changes of residence. The Gallup pollsters, as of mid-April, did not establish any marked rush among the young to become voters in the near future. But if a big number does register by 1972, it could be bad news for Nixon. The Gallup figures show that among the eleven million potential 18-to-21 voters, Teddy Kennedy leads Richard Nixon by a huge margin of preference (57 per cent as against 27 per cent), with George Wallace getting 11 per cent, and 5 per cent in the "don't know" category.

Kennedy, of course, has said he isn't a candidate, and the young are less enthusiastic about Senator Muskie or even Senator Humphrey over Nixon. But in the suburban areas of the Northeast, many of which surprised the pundits by voting for Republican Governors and Senators (and even Conservative Jim Buckley) in 1970, the Republican gains could be nullified, in a close 1972 election, by the young who do register. The Connecticut freshmen legislators in Washington are doing well to show their concern.

Dr. Walter Brehm, a Logan dentist and congressman from the 11th Ohio District including Pickaway County, was found guilty of accepting salary kickbacks from clerks in his office. He informed the court he intended to appeal the conviction which carried a 15-year prison term. Ohio's U.S. Senators, Taft and Bricker, appeared as character witnesses for Brehm during defense testimony.

Voters in the first ward, precinct B, were notified that their polling place was changed from the American Hotel to the Elks Home on North Court.

Ashville Community Club proposed to construct permanent bleachers in the village park before the annual July 4 celebration. Seating for 250 persons would be provided at a cost of $2,140.

Persons at least 75 years "young" were the guests of the Men's Brotherhood of the Trinity Lutheran Church for the annual Diamond Jubilee banquet.

Circleville Board of Education agreed to purchase one of five E. Mill St. properties on which its proposed new $475,000 physical education plant was to be constructed. The land was owned by Mrs. C. O. Kern. Other areas involved in the transaction were known as the Eccard, Madden, Howard and Curl properties.

Circleville police faced the possibility of becoming a one-cruiser force when city councilman George Crites held up payment of an $800 judgment in a civil suit filed in 1949 by Mrs. Mary Davis. Her attorney, Joe Adkins Jr., issued an ultimatum claiming that if the check was not paid by 3 p.m. May 3, he would file an execution on the police cruiser.

Pickaway County noted its first auto fatality of the year when a Columbus man died in a one-car crash on Route 23.

Myrtle Mae Brown became the twelfth child of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Brown to graduate from Walnut Twp. high school. The first to graduate, in 1932, were Emerson Franklin and Mary Gladys Brown. Other children were: Wayne E., James L., Helen J., Sarah M., Neal E., Norma Jean, Nancy A., and Elizabeth D.

Mrs. Florence Hoffman was honored for serving 50 years as a teacher in city schools.

Circleville voters were asked to decide four separate contests for party nomination to local public offices. Voted Democratic candidate for mayor was Thurman I. Miller; councilman-at-large, Harold Clifton; treasurer Everett Stocklen and third ward Councilman George Crites. There were less than 850 ballots marked in the entire county, one of the smallest voter turnouts ever noted here.

A project to convert all rural magneto telephone lines to the common battery type was completed by Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. Former equipment was replaced with a handset telephone with a subscriber hearing only his own ring and those of other parties on his line, always under ten per line. The last phone to be changed was that of Mr. and Mrs. Alva May, Route 1.

But the nicest floral arrangement, the tastiest assortment of candy or the most fashionable wearables can't compare with the gifts I received from my children when they were little.

Nothing they can ever give me in the future will come up to those objects made by loving hands at school.

After all, how can you run a household properly without a napkin holder made of one paper plate and one-half a paper plate stapled together, complete with crayon designs and a string for hanging?

And how can you keep your shoes shining without a soft blue polishing cloth with red basting stitches? What mom would not proudly wear a raft-like bar pin made of toothpicks stuck together, emblazoned with her name laboriously glued thereto in macaroni letters?

There's no finer place to keep jewelry than in a box, created from gilded ice cream sticks, which looks somewhat like a golden log cabin with a roof that lifts off.

Sometimes there are tears along with the laughter on Mothers Day. One year my daughter had made a plaster of paris cast of her hand in her first-grade class. She was so excited at the presentation ceremony that she dropped it. The plaque was shattered and so was she.

On a happier occasion my son, then nearing 5, presented me with an interesting but unidentifiable object. It was a tiny basket-like affair, made of several layers of crimped aluminum foil with a silver-ball keychain for a handle.

He insisted on knowing if I realized what treasure it be held and seemed a bit crestfallen when I couldn't come up with the answer.

"It's a walnut holder," he said proudly. "It holds just one walnut."

Family physicians and obstetricians ask for consulting opinions whenever a Caesarean section is contemplated. In fact, many hospitals require such a combined decision-making before the operation is performed.

Moreover, if the baby seems to be in any difficulty, rapid delivery may be necessary.

There is a misconception that not more than two children can be born by Caesarean section. This is not necessarily true. The idea that "once a Caesarean always a Caesarean" is also not necessarily true, unless the same factors are present.

The myth that the child born by Caesarean section is more beautiful can easily be explained. The normal pressure made on an infant's skull as it passes through the vaginal canal does sometimes alter the shape of the head, but only for a few days.

Obviously, this does not occur when the child is delivered by Caesarean surgery. Incidentally, less than 5 per cent of all births in the United States occur by Caesarean section.

Don't try to "work out" a painful shoulder or bursitis. The chances are you'll do more harm than good.

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

The 18-to-21-year-old voters obtained their franchise under a Republican Administration, and it was validated by the Nixon Supreme Court. So, biting the hands that have fed them their new voting freedom, the young have told Mr. Gallup's pollsters (as of April 17) that they are 42 per cent Democratic, 42 per cent Independent and only 16 per cent Republican. The White House is naturally concerned, but the president can hardly make an issue of it directly without laying himself open to the charge of interfering with the individual's sacred right to his own political preferences.

So what are the Republicans to do? The older ones sit on their hands, but three youthful Republican national legislators from Connecticut, Senator Lowell Weicker and Representatives Robert Steele and Stewart McKinney, all of them first-termers in their respective Congressional jobs, have come up with an indirect strategy that might make hay for their party. They have set up a program for 18-to-21 summer political internship that, for sheer size, beats anything that Washington has ever seen in its particular category.

The proposition has been worked out with the Republican Town Committees and the Connecticut service clubs — Rotary, the Lions, Kiwanis and the like — to pick three hundred young people and send them to Washington this summer to work for the three Republican officeholders on Capitol Hill. Each "scholarship" will be good for $150 and a week's intensive employment, plus evening introduction to social affairs of a generally political nature. The service clubs have been told to make their selections on a nonpartisan basis, even to picking kids from the so-called counter-culture who don't believe in the efficacy of working "within the system."

If the money is forthcoming, Weicker, Steele and McKinney are even prepared to accommodate as many as 400 interns, and would take 15-to-18-year-olds in cases of special interest.

Connecticut politicians of both parties helped defeat the original attempt to commit their state to the 18-to-21 franchise.

Since the Supreme Court has validated the Congressional grant of the vote to the young for Federal elections without waiting for a Constitutional amendment, there has been considerable searching of the heart in all of the states that had refused to make election law changes. Some Republicans have given ground grudgingly, even though Nixon supported the 18-year-old aspirations from the start. The Republican Town Committee of Torrington, Conn., for example, wanted to censure Senator Weicker for advocating the extension of the franchise to 18-year-olds in state elections as well as in national.

Taking the bull by the horns, Weicker went to Torrington and did his best to explain that the downward extension of the franchise was a new "fact of life," and if Republicans refused to accommodate themselves to the change the party could never build loyal young cadres for the future.

The voting habits of the young have always been erratic, what with failures to register and frequent changes of residence. The Gallup pollsters, as of mid-April, did not establish any marked rush among the young to become voters in the near future. But if a big number does register by 1972, it could be bad news for Nixon. The Gallup figures show that among the eleven million potential 18-to-21 voters, Teddy Kennedy leads Richard Nixon by a huge margin of preference (57 per cent as against 27 per cent), with George Wallace getting 11 per cent, and 5 per cent in the "don't know" category.

Kennedy, of course, has said he isn't a candidate, and the young are less enthusiastic about Senator Muskie or even Senator Humphrey over Nixon. But in the suburban areas of the Northeast, many of which surprised the pundits by voting for Republican Governors and Senators (and even Conservative Jim Buckley) in 1970, the Republican gains could be nullified, in a close 1972 election, by the young who do register. The Connecticut freshmen legislators in Washington are doing well to show their concern.

Dr. Walter Brehm, a Logan dentist and congressman from the 11th Ohio District including Pickaway County, was found guilty of accepting salary kickbacks from clerks in his office. He informed the court he intended to appeal the conviction which carried a 15-year prison term. Ohio's U.S. Senators, Taft and Bricker, appeared as character witnesses for Brehm during defense testimony.

Voters in the first ward, precinct B, were notified that their polling place was changed from the American Hotel to the Elks Home on North Court.

Ashville Community Club proposed to construct permanent bleachers in the village park before the annual July 4 celebration. Seating for 250 persons would be provided at a cost of $2,140.

Persons at least 75 years "young" were the guests of the Men's Brotherhood of the Trinity Lutheran Church for the annual Diamond Jubilee banquet.

Circleville Board of Education agreed to purchase one of five E. Mill St. properties on which its proposed new $475,000 physical education plant was to be constructed. The land was owned by Mrs. C. O. Kern. Other areas involved in the transaction were known as the Eccard, Madden, Howard and Curl properties.

Circleville police faced the possibility of becoming a one-cruiser force when city councilman George Crites held up payment of an $800 judgment in a civil suit filed in 1949 by Mrs. Mary Davis. Her attorney, Joe Adkins Jr., issued an ultimatum claiming that if the check was not paid by 3 p.m. May 3, he would file an execution on the police cruiser.

Pickaway County noted its first auto fatality of the year when a Columbus man died in a one-car crash on Route 23.

Circleville voters were asked to decide four separate contests for party nomination to local public offices. Voted Democratic candidate for mayor was Thurman I. Miller; councilman-at-large, Harold Clifton; treasurer Everett Stocklen and third ward Councilman George Crites. There were less than 850 ballots marked in the entire county, one of the smallest voter turn-outs ever noted here.

A project to convert all rural magnet telephone lines to the common battery type was completed by Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. Former equipment was replaced with a handset telephone with a subscriber hearing only his own ring and those of other parties on his line, always under ten per line. The last phone to be changed was that of Mr. and Mrs. Alva May, Route 1.

Alternative Society Turning To Evangelistic Mood

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Alternative Society is getting religion, as disclosed in this dispatch—last in a series from the AP Special Assignment Team.

By KEN HARTNETT
Associated Press Writer
TAOS, N.M. (AP) — Dennis rolled up the sleeve of his blue work shirt and showed the track marks. They stood out of his right arm like stigmata. "I was a drug addict, a smoker; then Jesus came in." "Praise the Lord," sang out Corky. "Praise the Lord," sang out Jill. "A 30-second heroin cure and with no cold turkey. It just takes that long with Jesus. Praise the Lord," Dennis said. The three longhaired evangelists sat on mattresses on the stone floor of their farmhouse outside Taos. Rabbit stew simmered on the wood stove and fresh baked honey bread cooled by the back window. Corky fondled his guitar. He had just accompanied himself as he sang, "Jesus is Right On, Brother."

It was a hippie dream come true—peace, serenity in the country, surrounded by friends and no rent to pay. ("We can stay as long as we don't grow grass and we keep the gate closed so the stock don't stray," Dennis explained.) Jill, Dennis and Corky didn't need grass to get high. They were high on Jesus.

The Alternative Society, where substantial number of young Americans are struggling to build a way of life apart from what they see as decadent and doomed America, is getting religion.

Hindu ashrams, Jesus houses, spiritualist newspapers are becoming as much a part of the Alternative Society scene as the free clinics, the communes, the free universities and other experimental structures of the budding counter culture.

From Cambridge to Berkeley, it's hip to be holy. Traveling through the Alternative Society—that other America with its own wobbly institutions, its own peculiar language, its own special sense of what's right and wrong—one encounters a crazy-quilt of religious belief.

"This generation is just overflowing with Jesus freaks," said Curly.

Jesus freaks are just part of the phenomenon. Spiritualists tuned into cosmic energy sit crosslegged pondering the void in an Atlanta commune. Followers of Kundalini Yoga form an extended family in Seattle. Spiritualist Steve Gasin and his 40-bus caravan crisscross America sending out vibrations and keeping high on energy and truth.

Hare Krishna develops communes in virtually every city. Sorcery and Satanism cults re-appear in the exotic atmosphere of California.

Astrology tables and charts of the Zodiac are as much a part of a commune as the mattress on the floor.

Names like Lord Shiva and Shakti, words like Chakra and karma, resound through the other society's vocabulary. Meher Baba freaks, Mhareshi Freaks, Jesus freaks, even Judaism freaks are part of the scene in Berkeley, in Madison, in Albuquerque—wherever the Alternative Society is trying to put a life together. One common strand runs through the profusion of beliefs: God can be found everywhere, but he can't be reached easily through an established church, be it Catholic, Protestant or Jewish.

Mention of orthodox Christianity is almost enough to make a Jesus freak lose his smile. "They've driven the young away by the millions," said ex-heroin addict Dennis. "There's no real spirit there."

The outpouring of religious fervor reflects the anarchistic spirit of the Alternative Society. No Moses has yet arrived with a new set of Commandments.

And even if one did, he would undoubtedly be put down for ego tripping or power tripping.

But certain values are shared: one must not exploit another either directly or through manipulation; one must share with his brothers and sisters; one must not despoil the earth; one must learn to grow and be open to the vibrations within one's self and from outside.

These values, as tarnished as they often are within the Alternative Society, admit of no Vietnamese as is keenly felt in the Alternative Society as the death of an American GI. No saving grace is seen in a military strategy designed to save American lives at the expense of Asian lives.

That is one reason why the Indochina War generates a real sense of guilt within the other American—a guilt that in turn generates religious fervor.

Another factor in the religious resurgence is the widespread sense that a nuclear or ecological apocalypse is near at hand.

"Rehearse for the Apocalypse," says the Atlanta Oracle, which casts a cold eye on the durability of a technological society.

Dear Abby: Mother's Day More Than Just A Gift

DEAR ABBY: I hardly know how to word this letter but I will give it a try. It will soon be Mother's Day again, and I hope my children won't buy me something because they think it is their duty. I would rather have a pack of chewing gum if they bought it because they love me and were thinking of me. So many gifts are bought for Mother's Day more out of sense of duty than for love.

I have a lovely gift that my son gave last Mother's Day and I haven't had the heart to take it out of the box because he just ran in and handed it to me, saying he had to go back to his mother-in-law's. The gift is expensive, but I had rather he spent a few hours with me than to buy me a present. That is why it is still in the box, untouched.

MAMMA: SAVANNAH, GA. DEAR ABBY: My seven-year-old son, when told he was adopted, asked the inevitable question: "Then, Mamma, does that mean you're not my real mother?"

"Well, let's see," I said. "Here, pinch me real hard and we'll see if I'm real or not." He pinched, I squealed, and we both had a good laugh. A happy, frank discussion followed.

But the most wonderful part is that this precious son of mine has TWO mothers. I have had the privilege of rocking him, feeding him and watching him grow into an adorable seven-year-old. Yes, I am his "real" mother and don't you dare call me less!

But no less real is the little girl who refused to have an abortion, insisting, "This little life inside me has as much right to live as I." The little girl who looked the social worker in the eye and said, "This adoption will work, because I am doing it for his sake, and I don't ever intend to hurt him by interfering in his life." That brave little girl has been true to her word for seven years.

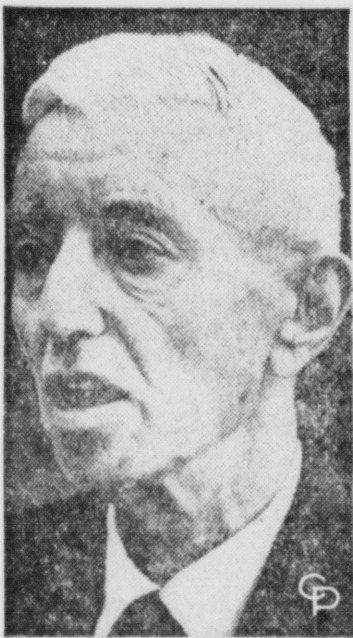

Some day when he has grown to a big, strapping six-footer, if his appearance in her life would not hurt the children she is now bearing for herself, I should be happy to think that I had so taught him to love and respect the thought of her, that he would take her in his big arms and whisper, "Mother, I love you."

She has every right to his love. And he will be a better man if he proves wise enough to know it.

HIS OTHER MOTHER DEAR ABBY: Not too long ago, a young boy celebrated his 14th birthday. I'm sure he had a birthday cake. He actually had two because I also baked him one and put 14 candles on it!

This boy was born to me out of wedlock. I was 17 years old at the time, and decided it would be best for Stevie if I gave him up for adoption. Stevie is not his name now, but that's the name I gave him for the short time he was mine. I have no regrets because I know that my son has a wonderful home with parents who love him. To them I want to say, thank you for opening up your hearts and home to my son. I send my dearest love to you, and him.

STEVIE'S OTHER MOTHER CONFIDENTIAL TO ANYONE FOR WHOM IT IS NOT YET TOO LATE: The gestation period of a mother's advice is anywhere from one hour to 50 years. Losing one's mother before having thanked her for the many precious things she taught you is one of life's greatest tragedies.

Ohio Bell Workers OK Extension

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Negotiators for The Communications Workers of America (CWA) agreed late Friday night to extend its labor contract with Ohio Bell, avoiding a strike by 29,000 Ohio Bell employees statewide.

The old contract expired at midnight Friday.

Ohio Bell said the extension agreement is reached on a new labor contract, but said either party can terminate the extension with written notice 24 hours in advance.

The contract was one of 15 with the CWA expiring nationally at midnight and seven more contracts between the CWA and Bell System Companies are due to terminate today.

The CWA is pressing for settlements with the Potomac Telephone Co. and Western Electric Co. in New York, which are to provide the pattern for the Ohio settlement.

Ohio Bell said it offered Friday a new three-year contract which would increase the maximum weekly pay for top craft jobs by $22.00 in the highest grade location and $19.50 in the lowest grade location.

It said second level craft jobs would be boosted under the proposal by $18.00 to $20.50 a week depending on location, and top weekly pay for all other jobs would be increased $12 to $14.50 a week.

Miss Monica E. Salyer Weds Richard S. Massie

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD S. MASSIE

Miss Monica E. Salyer became the bride of Richard S. Massie 2:30 p.m. Saturday, April 17. The Rev. Roy C. Osborn performed the double ring ceremony in Calvary United Methodist Church. Pastor Osborn served the couple Holy Communion followed by the lighting of a single candle signifying the union.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Salyer, 544 Edgewood Drive. Mr. Massie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Massie, Route 1.

Stand baskets of white daisies and gladioli with seven branch candelabra were placed before the altar and white bows marked the pews.

Miss Patty Painter, organist and Mrs. Scott Wilson, soloist, presented a half-hour of music preceding the ceremony. Selections included "One Hand, One Heart," "Because," "More" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected for her wedding day a gown of white organza and peau de ange lace fashioning the princess line gown with a Victorian neckline and bishop sleeves ending in deep cuffs of lace. The attached train was deeply paneled in matching lace petals and flowerettes. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of white Jack Frost roses and stephanotis with a pale blue Belgium lace handkerchief, a gift from her brother, who bought it in Europe, fastened at the back. A tiny white cross, a gift from the groom, was her only jewelry.

Maid of honor was Miss Karen Heckendorn of Cincinnati, a cousin of the bride. She was attired in a romance blue, high neckline, long sleeved bodice with tiny ruffle trim pant dress. A full flared pant skirt in multi-colored print was attached to the bodice. She carried a white basket with shades of blue daisies and wore a white picture hat with a narrow band matching the pant skirt.

Other attendants were Miss Jane Holbrook of Mt. Liberty and Miss Kerry Heckendorn of Cincinnati, also cousins of the bride. They were dressed as the honor attendant and they carried matching baskets of daisies.

Mr. Bruce Wolford served as best man. Ushers were Mr. Jim Evans, Mr. Ned Boggs, Mr. Buddy McAfee and Mr. Jim Salyer.

A reception was held at Good Shepherd United Methodist Church in the Service Center following the ceremony. A four tiered wedding cake, flanked with crystal candleholders holding white tapers, was served by hostesses Miss Nancy Butz, Mrs. Neil Coleman, Miss Debbie Stonerock and Miss Alice Bethel. Miss Kimberly Heckendorn, cousin of the bride, presided at the guest book.

For her going away costume the bride wore a two piece red suit with sleeveless red, white and blue blouse and red accessories.

The new Mrs. Massie is a graduate of Circleville High School and attended Kent State

Circleville Junior Women Entertain Bowling League

A party and presentation of trophies ended the bowling season for students of Brooks-Yates School and members of the Sheltered Workshop Friday afternoon at Circle D Lanes.

Members of Junior Women's Club who sponsored the project, served refreshments to bowlers and their parents and presented the trophies. The cakes, decorated as bowling lanes were donated by Lindsey's Bake Shop, and 7-Up and Coca-Cola by local distributors.

Receiving trophies for the championship team were Pat Kastner, Janet Smallwood, Elmer McFarland and Mike Siniff. The high game single for males was won by Charles Campbell and the high single for girls by Francine Porter. The most improved boy bowler was Charles Campbell and the most improved girl, Pat Kastner. High series for girls was won by Carol Fout and for the boys, Elmer McFarland.

Larry Dietrich was presented a plaque by the club for his cooperation with the bowling and party. Each bowler received a small trophy for their efforts.

Solaqua Garden Club Schedules Meeting

Solaqua Garden Club will meet 1:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Elzie Brooks, Route 3.

When children are playing with finger paints, it is helpful to set a bowl of old washcloths wrung from thick suds on the work table. This way, youngsters can easily wipe most of the paint from their hands — thus sparing the floor and furniture from splashes on their way to the basin for a thorough scrub-up.

Secretary Of The Year Is Named

Sharon Walters was named the Roundtown Chapter's Secretary of the Year at a luncheon on Saturday, April 24th, climaxing activities in observance of National Secretaries Week. Sharon's outstanding contributions of time, effort and hard work earned her the award. She is secretary for the Producers Buying Service in Circleville.

On hand for the luncheon were guests invited by members of the Roundtown Chapter to acquaint secretaries and other interested women in the NSA, its aims and purposes.

The opening address was given by Mayor Richard Gerhardt. After the luncheon, Jennie Russell, chairman of Secretaries Week, introduced the guest speaker, Bill Pepper, who thoroughly entertained the group with his "Broadcast Boo Boo's."

Miss June West, last year's Secretary of the Year, then announced the winner of the award for this year. Mrs. Walters was presented with a bracelet with the SOTY award inscribed on it.

The NSA Jesters gave their presentation of office do's and don'ts for secretaries.

At the close of the afternoon door prizes were awarded to lucky numbers.

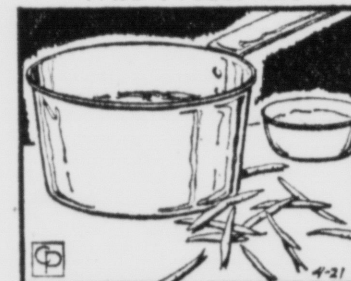

Scioto Chapel Women Set Events

Women's Society of Scioto Chapel United Methodist Church will have no regular meeting in May.

A rummage sale will be held in the Eagle's basement Friday, May 7.

The annual Mother-Daughter banquet will begin 7 p.m. May 12th at the Lockbourne United Methodist Church. Members and guests will leave Robtown promptly at 6 p.m.

Wife Preservers

Add leftover chip dip to cooked green beans for a new taste treat.

A cheese topper for broiled meat can be made by blending 1 part crumbled blue cheese with 2 parts softened butter, a dash of Worcestershire sauce, and lemon juice. Spread on lamb chops, steaks or hamburgers the last minute or two of broiling.

Miss Monica E. Salyer
Weds Richard S. Massie

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD S. MASSIE

Miss Monica E. Salyer became the bride of Richard S. Massie 2:30 p.m. Saturday, April 17. The Rev. Roy C. Osborn performed the double ring ceremony in Calvary United Methodist Church. Pastor Osborn served the couple Holy Communion followed by the lighting of a single candle signifying the union.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Salyer, 544 Edgewood Drive. Mr. Massie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Massie, Route 1.

Stand baskets of white daisies and gladioli with seven branch candelabra were placed before the altar and white bows marked the pews.

Miss Patty Painter, organist and Mrs. Scott Wilson, soloist, presented a half-hour of music preceding the ceremony. Selections included "Oce Hand, One Heart," "Because," "More" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected for her wedding day a gown of white organza and peau de ange lace fashioning the princess line gown with a Victorian neckline and bishop sleeves ending in deep cuffs of lace. The attached train was deeply paneled in matching lace petals and flowerettes. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of white Jack Frost roses and stephanotis with a pale blue Belgium lace handkerchief, a gift from her brother, who bought it in Europe, fastened at the back. A tiny white cross, a gift from the groom, was her only jewelry.

Maid of honor was Miss Karen Heckendorn of Cincinnati, a cousin of the bride. She was attired in a romance blue, high neckline, long sleeved bodice with tiny ruffle trim pant dress. A full flared pant skirt in multi-colored print was attached to the bodice. She carried a white basket with shades of blue daisies and wore a white picture hat with a narrow band matching the pant skirt.

Washington Riot Troops To Use 'Minimum Force'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal troops committed to prevent disruption of the government by antiwar demonstrators are restricted to using "minimum necessary force."

"The degree of force used must be no greater than that reasonably necessary under the circumstances," says an Army field manual guiding field commanders.

The rules, strengthened last November following the fatal shooting of four Kent State University students by Ohio National Guardsmen a year ago, are followed by most state guard organizations.

The revised manual stresses "the use of deadly force is authorized only under extreme circumstances," such as to avoid being killed or seriously harmed, or to prevent destruction of public utilities "or similar property vital to public health or safety."

Commanders of troops on civil disturbance duty are authorized to issue live ammunition but in most cases their men may not load their weapons except by an officer's order.

"Retention of control by an officer over the loading of weapons until such time as the need for such action is clearly established is of critical importance in preventing the unjustified use of deadly force," the manual states.

Furthermore, commanders are told they "should at all times exercise positive control over the use of weapons."

The manual advises commanders to avoid stirring up crowds by riot control formations or gas "if saturation of the area with manpower would suffice."

It adds: "Every effort should be made to avoid appearing as an alien invading force, and to present the image of a restrained and well disciplined force whose sole purpose is to assist in the restoration of law and order."

The principal riot control agent used by the Army is CS gas, a chemical irritant of the upper respiratory tract. It takes less than a minute to incapacitate.

There were 637,108 shotgun licenses issued in England and Wales in 1969.

DETROIT (AP) — Why did Michigan's first black Medal of Honor winner die as an armed robber?

Dwight H. Johnson's father-in-law says he thinks "it was a case of too much too soon; the more they toasted him the more he became accustomed to it."

"Little things were piling up on them. They had things in their first year of marriage it took us 20 years to have," LeRoy May said Saturday of his daughter, Katrina Lyn, and her husband.

Sgt. Johnson, 23, died last Friday after he was shot four times by the owner of a store police say he was attempting to rob.

President Lyndon B. Johnson bestowed the nation's highest award for valor on Johnson Nov. 19, 1968. The Detroit tank driver was cited for heroism in leaving his disabled vehicle, slaying several North Vietnamese and rescuing a wounded GI from another flaming tank.

"He was in financial trouble, they bought a house and a lot of things," May said.

"On Wednesday Katrina had to go to the hospital and when Dwight walked her up to the desk he didn't have the $25 deposit," May said.

"She told me he looked like a meek little boy when he told them he would have it by the time she left Friday."

Johnson took his 18-month son, Dwight Christopher, to visit his wife Thursday night. Police said their investigation showed Johnson later joined three friends, dropped the child off at the home of another friend then struck out on his own.

He later entered the store armed with a small caliber pistol, police said, and announced a holdup. In an ensuing struggle with the owner, Charles Van Dendeghem, Johnson was shot four times. He died in a hospital three hours later. Van Dendeghem, wounded in the arm, is recovering.

Drafted in July 1966, Johnson was shipped to Vietnam the following January.

Released from the Army in August 1968, Johnson was unable to find work, May said. Then the Army said he would receive the Medal of Honor for his actions near Dak To on Jan. 15, 1968.

UMW Troubled By Divisions, Federal Probe

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — The United Mine Workers, once a tightly run, powerful union, is heading into contract negotiations this year deeply divided by the protests of dissident members and a series of legal attacks on its leadership. The latest blow was a federal court ruling charging mismanagement of the 140,000-member union's pension fund. U.S. Dist. Court Judge Gerhard Gesell ordered UMW President W.A. "Tony" Boyle, 66, and Josephine Roche, 84, removed on Wednesday as trustees of the three-member board that administers the $457 million Welfare and Retirement Fund.

Brown, SERS Get In Spat Over Hiring Of Lawyer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The attorney general's office and the State Employees Retirement Board clashed Friday over the appointment of a lawyer to represent the board in a suit filed by the Atty. Gen. William J. Brown.

The board adopted a resolution appointing J. Paul McNamara to represent SERS although Brown had already appointed lawyer Jack Folkerth.

First Assistant Atty. Gen. George L. Jenkins, representing Brown on the board, told the board they had no authority to appoint counsel.

He said the Ohio law provides for the attorney general to appoint counsel to represent state agencies.

On Friday evening Brown said "I'm not particularly worried about it, it's a problem I think we can solve."

The board also passed a resolution disassociating itself from statements made by SERS Executive Director James Brennan Thursday, calling the suit "political" and saying it "seeks to destroy" the work of the board. Jenkins and Deputy State Auditor Richard Borrer voted for the motion. The other three members abstained.

Check Your Level

RACINE, Wis. (AP) — Before you start out in the family car on your summer vacation make certain the coolant level meets the one recommended by the car maker. If the level is down, look for signs of a possible radiator leak, warns the Modine Manufacturing Co., maker of car radiators.

Jenkins said the suit is not an adversary action. "The only question involved is a legal question and we feel everybody has an interest in seeing all the facts made public," he said.

He told the board the attorney general's office is frequently a party to both sides of a suit.

The attorney general, he said must provide counsel for any state agency when sued. In cases where the attorney general brings the suit, members of his staff can be found on both sides.

New Device Tested For Crime Control

DALLAS (AP) — Police here are using a new metal trace detection technique to help solve burglaries and crimes of violence.

Investigator Gonzalo Gonzales says the process, which involves a $50 ultraviolet lamp and a special alcohol compound, has already proved accurate although it is only in the experimental stage.

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., has announced his health subcommittee will hold a public hearing and visit two hospitals as part of its appearance here Tuesday.

Kennedy is chairman of the subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare which is on tour to learn more about the status of medical care in the United States. Kennedy is also trying to enlist grass-roots support for the national health insurance bill he and Rep. Martha W. Griffiths, D-Mich., recently introduced.

The group will visit St. Alexis and St. Luke's hospitals and the Kaiser Community Health Foun-

Smith Is Appointed Hamilton Manager

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — Edward Smith, city manager of Obelin, will assume a similar post in Hamilton on June 1.

Smith, 37, will succeed Howard Wilson who resigned March 1 from the $25,000 yearly position. Smith's appointment as city manager has been confirmed by Mayor Mark Petty. Until June 1, Public Works Director Jack Kirsch will continue to serve as acting city manager.

dation medical center in the morning before holding a closed conference on prepaid group practice.

A noon luncheon will be held on medical school problems before the public hearing in the federal office building at 1:15 p.m. A closed conference on health services to low-income and fixed income families will follow.

Ohio Counts 17 Highway Deaths During Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Despite rainy weather and slippery roads, Ohio's weekend traffic death count fell below 20 for the first time in three weeks.

Seventeen died on the state's streets and highways during the 54-hour period ending at midnight Sunday. Ten of those died in four accidents.

The worst accidents were recorded near Urbana and Celina on Saturday. Each claimed three lives.

The dead:

FRIDAY NIGHT
MAUMEE — Teresa J. Casiano, 20, of Swanton in Fulton County, when struck by a car on U.S. 20-A west of Maumee in Lucas County.

SATURDAY
URBANA — Betty Evans, 23; her son, Adam Michael Evans, 2, and her sister, Sharon Cremons, 15, all of Troy, in a three-car crash at the Mad River Bridge six miles southwest of Urbana. Seven other persons were injured in the crash.

PIQUA — Ronald E. Mustard, 32, of Dayton, when the car in which he was riding crashed off Interstate 75 four miles south of Piqua.

CELINA — Russell B. Snyder, 51, of rural Celina; Chester Blevins, 57, of Marysville, and

Robert Isbell, 44, of Rockford, in a two-car crash at the intersection of Ohio 707 and U.S. 33 about seven miles south of Celina.

PORT CLINTON — Daniel Finkler Jr., 24, of Port Clinton, when the car in which he was a passenger missed a curve on West Catawba Road east of Port Clinton.

ELYRIA — Ervin Thomas, 52, of Swanton, when his truck collided with a car on Ohio 303 and 511 near Kipton in Lorain County.

MARYSVILLE — Jodie Carroll and Brenda Frey, both 15 and both of Marysville, when the car in which they were riding crashed on Ohio 4 southwest of Marysville.

DEFIANCE — Holland G. Schilt, 43, Rt. 3 Defiance and Albert G. Schilt, 47, Defiance, when their crashed off a Defiance County road 2.5 miles north of the Paulding County line.

BRUNSWICK — Mary Leonhardt, 53, of Lakewood, in a two-car crash on Interstate 71 near Brunswick in Medina County.

Kenton City School District In Trouble

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson said Friday that the Kenton City School District will be forced to end classes in November unless its financial situation improves.

Ferguson said an audit revealed the school district would exhaust its operating money between Nov. 1 and Nov. 19. The audit is a prelude to closing the district's schools.

An 8.2 mill school levy for the district will be on the ballot Tuesday. Voters turned down similar levies three times last year.

Services Slated For Miami U Prof

OXFORD, Ohio (AP) — Services will be held Wednesday at Miami University's chapel for Dr. Edwin Howard who retired in 1968 after serving on the college's faculty since 1930.

Howard, 69, died Sunday at McCullough-Hyde Hospital. He had been hospitalized since suffering a heart attack three weeks ago.

Howard was an authority in early English literature and wrote eight books — all published by Anchor Press which he operated.

County TB And Health Assn. To Merge With District

The Pickaway County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. will merge effective July 1 with Ross, Pike and Jackson Counties to form a district association.

The merger is being made at the direction of the State Board of Directors. The new district will be known as the South Central Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Assn.

The state planning committee has suggested that as many as 11 counties should be included in the district.

The National and State associations had directed that if the county areas had not voluntarily merged by a stated date, the mergers would be decided on a state level. Pickaway County Assn. elected to request the merger with the counties to the south, because it is a more comparable rural area in population, interests and problems.

The final annual report of the county association was recently completed by Mrs. D. E. Hickey, executive secretary.

Five thousand tuberculin skin tests were purchased for use by the county and city health departments by the county association. The tests were used for students, employees in nursing homes, food handlers in eating establishments and those working in booths at the county fair and Pumpkin Show.

The association planned,

Major Pieces Of Legislation Introduced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The following major pieces of legislation were either introduced or acted upon during the 16th week of the 109th General Assembly.

EDUCATION
H.B. 828—To set state subsidies for public education at $600, $80 less than Gilligan administration proposal. Ref. to House Health, Education and Welfare Committee.

FINANCE
S.B. 250—To increase pay for county officials on the average of $4,000 a year and to establish a 50 per cent state subsidy for county prosecutor's salary. Ref. to Senate Ways and Means Committee.

GOVERNMENT
H.B. 634—To establish a Department of Public Safety at the cabinet level. Ref. to House Committee on State Government.

HEALTH
S.B. 56—To authorize minors to consent to treatment for venereal disease without informing parents. Ref. to the House Health, Welfare and Education Committee.

POLLUTION
H.B. 8—To empower air pollution board to regulate air craft noise. Ref. to House Environment and Natural Resources Committee. Further action postponed indefinitely.

TAXES
INITIATIVE BILL — Sponsored by AFL-CIO and United Auto Workers unions — an alternative tax proposal to Gilligan administration legislation. Labor bill eliminates personal income tax provisions. Introduced into the House.

YOUTH
S.J.R. 1—To amend the Ohio Constitution to lower the voting age in state and local elections to 18. Passed by the Senate 31-1. Sent on to the House.

Bayh Opens Hearings On Juveniles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Birch Bayh opened hearings today on conditions in juvenile correctional institutions with a charge that many youths "are beaten, brutalized and exposed to vicious sexual attacks."

The Indiana Democrat, chairman of the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee, added in his prepared statement that little, if any, rehabilitation takes place in detention and correctional facilities.

East Pakistan Still Resists West Pakistani Army Control

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — The rout of East Pakistan's Awami League has failed to end Bengali resistance to the central government, but it has pushed Pakistan close to financial ruin and fed a raging debate in West Pakistan over an end to military rule.

Despite daily claims of a return to normalcy in the East, the army of Punjabis from West Pakistan has not been able to control large areas in the tea-growing Sylhet district, the jute-growing Mymensingh district, the panhandle south of Chittagong and the area along the Bay of Bengal that is devastated so often by cyclones.

Diplomats returning from the East say the army claims resistance is crumbling, but the diplomats believe the Bengali fighters are going underground. One source said a member of

Whale Performer Nearly Slips From Its Sling

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Shamu, a 4,000-pound, 25-foot performing killer whale, was safely in its summer home in nearby Aurora today after escaping injury when its transporting sling came loose Sunday.

Sea World of Ohio officials said the whale waved its tail while suspended 30 feet in the air above a backdrop sidewalk surrounding its Aurora holding tank, causing the rear section of the heavy canvas sling to come loose.

They said the whale dangled in the air for several moments before trainer Jim Richards grabbed ropes to guide the whale into the tank. A crowd estimated by officials at 1,200 watched the whale get lowered into the tank.

The number of licensed vehicles on Britain's roads increased by 270 per cent in 20 years up to 1969. The Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents said new roads increased by only 12 per cent in the same period.

Two of the first witnesses de-nounced the juvenile justice system in El Paso, Tex., and conditions in the county juvenile detention home there.

Steven Bercu of the El Paso Legal Assistance Society said it is difficult to imagine any place "where juveniles are so routinely abused."

He said police will arrest any juvenile merely on the word of the parent and, in defiance of Texas law, children are detained for indefinite periods without the benefit of a court hearing and "without any conceivable justification."

Bercu said the county detention has no educational or rehabilitation facilities and its sanitary conditions are disgusting.

This week, we are devoting our column to you newlyweds.

Don't be tempted to rent an apartment, because at the end of a year all you have to show for your efforts is a handful of rent receipts.

By comparison you could have a 12 x 60 mobile home, completely furnished with the most modern appliances and all the basic furniture which is included in the purchase price, styled particularly for the mobile home you select.

Everything is ready for you to move right in and immediately begin home life.

Need we say more. Come take a look.

County TB And Health Assn. To Merge With District

The Pickaway County Tuberculosis and Health Assn. will merge effective July 1 with Ross, Pike and Jackson Counties to form a district association.

The merger is being made at the direction of the State Board of Directors. The new district will be known as the South Central Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Assn.

The state planning committee has suggested that as many as 11 counties should be included in the district.

The National and State associations had directed that if the county areas had not voluntarily merged by a stated date, the mergers would be decided on a state level. Pickaway County Assn. elected to request the merger with the counties to the south, because it is a more comparable rural area in population, interests and problems.

The final annual report of the county association was recently completed by Mrs. D. E. Hickey, executive secretary.

Five thousand tuberculin skin tests were purchased for use by the county and city health departments by the county association. The tests were used for students, employees in nursing homes, food handlers in eating establishments and those working in booths at the county fair and Pumpkin Show.

The association planned, financed for publicity and arranged the commercial chest X-ray mobile unit's visit here for five days in November.

Each year many people who have had the positive reaction from the skin tests take advantage of this service in order to obtain their annual chest X-ray.

This year volunteers gave many hours in labeling, stuffing, sorting and sealing 8,349 Christmas seal envelopes. A public education and information program was carried out on a year round basis by distributing literature to the public and providing publicity on tuberculosis and other respiratory diseases.

For many years the local association had a reserve savings fund which also contained a memorial gift and a bequest to the local association. This fund has been drawing interest and it was decided by the board of trustees to use it to purchase a defibrillator for Berger Hospital and a double illuminated X-ray film view box to be used by the health departments at the monthly chest clinic.

Officers of the county association are: Mrs. Karl Seyfarth, president; Judge William Ammer, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Bowman, secretary; Katherine L. Mead, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Adkins, representative director; Mrs. E. M. Hundley, alternate representative director.

Members of the board of directors are:

Ralph Altmeyer, Carl Bennett, Mrs. Dorsey Bumgarner, George Byrd, Mrs. Georgia Dore, Mrs. Hillis Hall, Miss Eloise Hanley, Mrs. Walter Heine, Mrs. Paul Hill, Mr. and Mrs. John Himrod, Wayne Hines, Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick, George McDowell, Dr. Frank Moore, Charles Morris, Dr. William Myers, Earl Palm, Mrs. Robert Pickens, Mrs. W. Bayh Opens Hearings On Juveniles

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Birch Bayh opened hearings today on conditions in juvenile correctional institutions with a charge that many youths "are beaten, brutalized and exposed to vicious sexual attacks."

The Indiana Democrat, chairman of the Senate juvenile delinquency subcommittee, added in his prepared statement that little, if any, rehabilitation takes place in detention and correctional facilities.

Two of the first witnesses denounced the juvenile justice system in El Paso, Tex., and conditions in the county juvenile detention home there.

Steven Bercu of the El Paso Legal Assistance Society said it is difficult to imagine any place "where juveniles are so routinely abused."

He said police will arrest any juvenile merely on the word of the parent and, in defiance of Texas law, children are detained for indefinite periods without the benefit of a court hearing and "without any conceivable justification."

Bercu said the county detention has no educational or rehabilitation facilities and its sanitary conditions are disgusting.

He also said children are continually beaten, no qualified personnel are employed, and juvenile records are disclosed to any caller.

Even stronger testimony was given by Bill Payne, who said in his prepared statement he was assigned by the El Paso Times last August to conduct an investigation and write a series of articles.

"Juvenile justice as it exists in El Paso County, and, indeed, throughout the state of Texas, is a disgrace and an abomination, conceived and executed in bad faith and designed solely for the profit of the keepers even as they speak nobly of solicitude for the children they catch and cage," Payne said.

East Pakistan Still Resists West Pakistani Army Control

RAWALPINDI, Pakistan (AP) — The rout of East Pakistan's Awami League has failed to end Bengali resistance to the central government, but it has pushed Pakistan close to financial ruin and fed a raging debate in West Pakistan over an end to military rule.

Despite daily claims of a return to normalcy in the East, the army of Punjabis from West Pakistan has not been able to control large areas in the tea-growing Sylhet district, the jute-growing Mymensingh district, the panhandle south of Chittagong and the area along the Bay of Bengal that is devastated so often by cyclones.

Diplomats returning from the East say the army claims resistance is crumbling, but the diplomats believe the Bengali fighters are going underground. One source said a member of the Awami League, the spearhead of East Pakistan's independence movement and its major political party, told him: "There will always be a time when suddenly there are 10 Bengalis and five Punjabi soldiers. Then there will be no Punjabi soldiers."

Officials here and in Dacca, the capital of East Pakistan, are concerned about the renewal of violence between Bengalis and Urdu-speaking non-Bengalis still in the East. Some government officials claim 30,000 Urdu speakers were killed in the communal frenzy before and after the army struck in March. More communal violence was reported Wednesday in the Mohammedpur area of Dacca, and at least seven persons were killed. The government clamped down on the reports of violence, fearing they would provoke retaliation against about 500,000 Bengalis living in West Pakistan.

Informed sources say Pakistan's military ruler, Gen. Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan, wants to turn over power to the civilian politicians, but he won't do it until he can transfer rule simultaneously in both East and West Pakistan. But more than a month after the arrest of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the leader of the Awami League, Yahya Khan has netted only one minor Awami member of any note—Fazlul Haq—who is willing to side with him. And he is not considered influential.

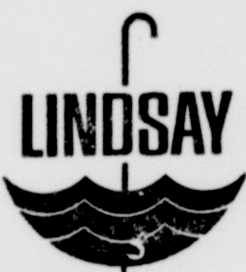

Whale Performer Nearly Slips From Its Sling

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Shamu, a 4,000-pound, 25-foot performing killer whale, was safely in its summer home in nearby Aurora today after escaping injury when its transporting sling came loose Sunday.

Sea World of Ohio officials said the whale waved its tail while suspended 30 feet in the air above a backdrop sidewalk surrounding its Aurora holding tank, causing the rear section of the heavy canvas sling to come loose.

They said the whale dangled in the air for several moments before trainer Jim Richards grabbed ropes to guide the whale into the tank. A crowd estimated by officials at 1,200 watched the whale get lowered into the tank.

The number of licensed vehicles on Britain's roads increased by 270 per cent in 20 years up to 1969. The Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents said new roads increased by only 12 per cent in the same period.

Westfall Nine Sweeps Twinbill

Larry Harris smashed two homers and two singles to pace the Mustangs of Westfall to a double victory over Huntington Saturday on the Westfall diamond.

The Mustangs took the first contest, 10-1, and made it a clean sweep with an 11-4 win in the five inning finale.

Westfall continued its torrid hitting attack rapping the Huntsmen hurlers for 10 hits in the first contest and nine safeties in the abbreviated second affair.

Ted Musselman went all the way for the Scarlet and Gray in the opener. He allowed five hits, fanned 10 and issued six free passes.

OYER and Chaney shared mound duties for Huntington whiffing eight and walking four. Musselman aided his own cause with three singles, John Valone added three one baggers and Randy Aikire and Mike Peterson each had a single in the winning effort.

The Mustangs tallied twice in the second on three hits, added two more in the third on a two-run homer by Harris, tallied four times in the fifth and completed the scoring with a pair of markers in the sixth frame.

Huntington scored three times in the fourth and added a lone run in the seventh to account for its totals.

Randy Aikire hurled the distance for the Mustangs in the second game. He gave up five hits, struck out four and walked four.

The Huntsmen used three hurlers in the five inning nightcap. They came up with three strikeouts and four walks.

HARRIS rapped his second homer of the day and added a single for the Scarlet and Gray. Doug McKay also smashed a four bagger, Mike Peterson slashed two singles and Scott Riddle, Valone, Dave Shannon and Larry Adams each added a single to the Westfall attack.

Huntington jumped off to a four run lead in the top of the first but the heavy hitting Mustangs bounced back with five tallies in the bottom of the first to take command.

Homers by Harris and McKay accounted for two more markers in the second and a four run outburst in the third put the game on ice for Westfall.

The Mustangs are now 10-1-1 for the season and will be at Teays Valley tonight for an encounter with the Vikings.

Westfall will host West Jefferson Thursday in a Class A sectional tournament fray.

Vikings Split Doubleheader With Blanchester Wildcats

Teays Valley split a double header with Blanchester Saturday on the Wildcats home grounds, dropping a 4-3 decision in the opener but scoring a 14-4 win in the nightcap.

Sam Wilson was the starter and loser for the Vikings. He limited the Wildcats to five safeties but five errors on the part of his mates contributed to his downfall.

Teays Valley opened the scoring in the top of the first when Jeff Ehman singled, advanced on a ground out and scored when the Wildcats misplayed Joe Meritts' ground ball.

The Vikings tallied a single run in the fifth on Meritts' four bagger and another marker in the sixth when Dave Chaffin smashed a roundtripper.

BLANCHESTER scored a run in the fourth and rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh to gain the victory.

It was a different story in the finale as the Vikings ripped Blanchester pitching for 14 hits and 14 runs. Seven errors on the part of the Wildcats added to their downfall.

The starter and winner for the Blue and Gold was Ron Spurlock although he was relieved by Don Makarius.

Merritt again had the big bat for the Vikings hitting his second homer of the day in the first inning with two men on base.

Teays Valley added two more runs in the third, three in the fifth and exploded four six markers in the seventh. Dave Chaffin's double was the big Viking blow in the seventh frame.

Penny had a four bagger for Blanchester to lead the six hit attack.

The Vikings are now 7-14 on the season and will host Westfall tonight.

SPORTS Highlights

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Indians Manager Alvin Dark said Sunday that he is opposed to trading southpaw pitcher Sam McDowell to the Oakland Athletics.

The Athletics offered over the weekend to give the Indians their choice of six of 12 players they listed in return for McDowell.

Oakland Manager Dick Williams said the list includes three starting pitchers, a catcher, a choice of two outfielders, a choice of four infielders and a choice of two relief pitchers.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Coiff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., the No. 1-ranked player in the nation, downed ageless Alex Olmedo 7-5, 5-7, 6-2 to take the $3,500 first prize in the Glenwood Manor Invitational Tennis Tournament Sunday.

In the women's singles, Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego pulled a mild upset by tripping Mary Ann Curtus of St. Louis 6-3, 6-4 for the championship and $1,100.

BALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John Newcombe, a first-round loser last year, disposed of Arthur Ashe 7-6, 6-4 in 68 minutes Sunday to win the singles title of the Ralings Tennis Classic.

Tom Okker and Marty Reissen combined for a straight set 6-3, 6-4 decision over Bob Lutz and Charles Pasarell in the doubles championship.

Newcombe's victory earned him $10,000. It was his third tournament victory on the World Championship of Tennis tour in just five events.

Okker and Reissen split $1,800.

McCovey, Reed Gripe, But Win

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN Associated Press Sports Writer

"I feel worse today than I've felt all year," moaned slugger Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants. "My right knee was really acting up. This is the worst kind of weather for a guy with my problem."

"When a home run hitter hits one you can't say much," complained pitcher Ron Reed of the Atlanta Braves. "But when one of those slap hitters hits one it hurts the ego."

Sore losers? Hardly.

McCovey whacked a two-run homer in the first inning and a tie-breaking solo shot in the 13th as the Giants edged the Reds 4-3 in chilly, blustery Cincinnati. Reed checked Los Angeles 4-1 on a five-hitter, the only run coming on Maury Wills' 18th career homer.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets tripped Houston 6-5 in 10 innings, St. Louis nipped Montreal 1-0. Pittsburgh downed San Diego 5-1 and the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 7-1.

McCovey dragged his ailing knees to the plate in the 13th inning against Tony Cloninger and did something about getting to the nice warm clubhouse as soon as possible.

"Sure I was thinking of a home run," he said. "I certainly wasn't thinking of bunting. I knew it was gone when I hit it."

The victory was the 16th in the last 20 games for the Giants and gave them a six-game lead in the NL West over Atlanta, which jumped over Los Angeles and Houston into second place.

Harness Racing Under Way

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS Harness racing's second world driving championship gets under way tonight at Roosevelt Raceway in Westbury, N.Y.

Eight of the world's outstanding drivers, headed by Herve Filion, the defending champion from Canada, and Billy Houghton of the United States, will compete in a series of 10 races at eight tracks, winding up May 15 at Liberty Bell Park in Philadelphia.

The other six drivers who will compete the world title, sponsored by the Harness Tracks of America, are Gordon Rothacker of Australia, Adolf Ubleis of Austria, Jean Rene Gougeon of France, Cencio Ossani of Italy, Peter Wolfenden of New Zealand and Karsten Buer of Norway.

First Pick N., with Filion in the sulky, is favored to win tonight's feature pace and give Herve 50 points in the over-all point standings that will decide the world title.

The second stop on the tour is scheduled for Wednesday night at Roscroft Raceway in Oxon Hill, Md.

The Braves got home runs from Orlando Cepeda and Hank Aaron to support Reed's strong pitching. Cepeda connected in the first after Aaron belted his 543rd career double, putting him eighth on the all-time list. Aaron then slugged, his 603rd career homer in the eighth.

Reed lost his shutout on Wills' sixth-inning homer, which left the veteran shortstop only 585 behind Aaron. "I had only two hanging sliders all day and look what happened to them. Duke Sims hits a double and Wills gets the home run."

Cepeda's home run came on a change-up from loser Don Sutton. "I was looking for a fast ball," Cepeda said. "I don't get many change-ups, maybe three or four a year. In fact, my first hit in the major leagues was a home run on a change-up."

The Mets blew a three-run lead in the ninth inning against Houston but won it in the 10th on Ken Boswell's double and Bob Aspromonte's triple off George Culver. The Astros had tied it on Cesar Ceden's two-run homer and Jim Wynn's run-scoring single.

In winning their sixth in the last seven starts, the Mets wiped out a 2-0 deficit with four runs in the sixth against Don Wilson. Tommie Agee doubled, Bud Harrelson tripled and Cleon Jones, Ed Kranepool and Aspromonte produced RBI singles.

Steve Carlton ran his record to 5-1 with a nine-hitter as the Cards dropped the amazing Expos to fourth place in the NL East. The only run was unearned, coming on Lou Brock's single, two infield outs and shortstop Bobby Wine's error. Carlton also ended the 16-game hitting streak of Montreal's Rusty Staub, who hit into a big double play in the seventh with two runners aboard.

Gene Clines' tie - breaking single keyed a four-run burst in the seventh that lifted Pittsburgh past San Diego. The Padres have lost seven in a row and 15 of 17.

Red Sox Win Two; Gain Top Spot

By DICK COUCH Associated Press Sports Writer

There's no place like home for the Boston Red Sox—especially when it's so hard to find.

The Red Sox left 19 runners on the bases—one short of the all-time record for a nine-inning game set by the 1956 New York Yankees—as they scratched out a 9-8 victory over Minnesota Sunday to complete a doubleheader sweep and a lucrative homestand that has put them atop the American League East.

Ray Culp stymied the Twins 1-0 with a two-hitter in the opener but the Red Sox had to come from behind twice in the nightcap for their ninth victory in the 12-game stand at friendly Fenway Park.

They left the bases jammed in four innings before George Thomas' first hit of the season—a bases-loaded pinch single—capped a winning two-run rally in the ninth.

The sweep gave Boston a one-game division lead over the Baltimore Orioles, who salvaged the finale of a three-game set against their former Kansas City cousins by taming the Royals 5-3.

In other American League action, Oakland split a doubleheader with Cleveland, bowing 7-3 in 10 innings after an 8-5 first game victory, the New York Yankees swept a pair from Milwaukee 2-1 and 5-4, the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 3-1 and California subdued Detroit 4-3.

Culp, who had been shelved in his previous three starts, limited Minnesota to a pair of scattered doubles as the Red Sox took the first game with an unearned run off Bert Blyleven in the third inning.

Luis Aparicio, who had doubled, scored from second when second baseman Steve Braun booted Carl Yastrzemski's two-out grounder, giving Culp his third victory against one loss.

In the nightcap, Boston spotted the Twins a 7-2 lead before Reggie Smith's fourth hit—a three-run homer in the seventh—keyed a tying comeback.

The Twins regained the lead in the top of the ninth when Harmon Killebrew drilled a run-scoring single for his fourth hit.

But a walk and George Scott's triple knotted it again in the bottom half. Minnesota reliever Ron Perranoski then filled the bases on two walks and Thomas, hitless in six previous at-bats this season, delivered the winning hit.

The Orioles, beaten by Kansas City Friday night and Saturday after whipping the Royals 23 consecutive times over the past two seasons, captured the getaway game behind southpaw Mike Cuellar, who helped his own cause with a two-run homer.

Cleveland's Sam McDowell, shelled from the mound in the first inning of the opener at Oakland, came back to win the nightcap in a rare relief appearance as the Indians broke loose for four runs in the 10th.

Chuck Hinton doubled home the go-ahead run and Ted Ford slammed a three-run homer. Reggie Jackson's three-run homer keyed a five-run Oakland burst that knocked out McDowell in the first game, pinning the Cleveland fireballer.

with his fourth loss of the season.

McDowell came out of the bullpen—for the first time since 1969—in the seventh inning of the nightcap, gave up a tying homer by Don Mincher in the eighth and then checked the A's the rest of the way for his initial 1971 victory.

New York's Mel Stottlemyre throttled the Brewers on three hits in their twin bil opener and the Yanks snapped a 4-4 deadlock in the seventh inning of the second game on Danny Cater's run-scoring double.

Rick Reichardt's two-run homer in the ninth lifted the White Sox past Washington for a sweep of their four-game weekend set. Reichardt beat his former mates with a two-out wallop off Darold Knowles.

Sandy Alomar decided the Angels-Tigers duel with a tie-breaking single in the seventh—his fourth game-winning hit for California this year.

Canonero II Wins Derby; Faces Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Pimlico general manager thought he was being kidded when a telephone caller said he wanted to make a Preakness nomination for a horse racing in Venezuela. It was not a joke and neither is the horse—Canonero II, winner of the Kentucky Derby.

"I thought I was being kidded; I never heard of the horse," Chick Lang said last Saturday night, an hour after Canonero II made himself known to the world.

In changing his status from an unknown member of the Derby mutual field to a star attraction for the Preakness, Canonero II soundly whipped 19 other 3-year-olds.

But the Kentucky-bred, Venezuelan-raced colt, owned by Edgar Caibett of Caracas, won't lack competition in the May 15 Preakness.

"I expect 14," Lang said. One of those expected to test Canonero II is Frank J. Caldwell's Jim French, the Derby runnerup.

Trainer John Campo said Jim French came out of the Derby with cuts on three legs but that the son of Graustark would be ready for the second race of the Triple Crown series in Baltimore.

Black Hawks Win Stanley Cup Spot

CHICAGO (AP) — "We're not old men," Tony Esposito said. "We're young men and we recover quickly."

Nevertheless, like his Chicago teammates, the Black Hawks' goalie was quiet in the dressing room following Sunday's 4-2 victory over the New York Rangers that catapulted the Hawks into the National Hockey League Stanley Cup finals against Montreal.

There was exhilaration—but none of the usual hollering and clowning around, the celebrating that accompanies such triumphs. The Hawks were simply too tired.

Gene Alley started the rally with a single and stole second before pitcher Steve Arlin booted Dave Cash's grounder. Clines then singled, scoring Alley, and Cash also raced home when left fielder Larry Stahl's throw sailed past the plate. Richie Hebner tripled Clines across and scored on Willie Stargell's sacrifice fly.

Ron Santo drove in five runs with a home run, double and bases-loaded walk and Bill Hands scattered six hits as the Cubs drubbed the Phillies.

Santo cracked a two-run double in the first, drew his walk in the fifth which was followed by Johnny Callison's two-run single and homered in the seventh behind Billy Williams' double.

Frank Beard New Orleans Golf Winner

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — "I never really doubted that I was going to win," Frank Beard said after pulling down the $25,000 first prize in the great New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"I know that's what Jack Nicklaus said at the Masters," the quiet man with the deadly putter continued. "But it's true, even when I was five strokes down, I just knew I was going to win."

"It's like that on some courses for some players."

"And this course—and New Orleans—have been very, very good to me. This is the one tournament I'll always play. In the last few years I've won twice, finished second once, I think third once and maybe fourth."

"Good things seem to happen to me here. I got married here," he said, then grinned. "That's the one bad thing..."

Beard, playing one day after his 32nd birthday, fired a final-round 68 Sunday on the sunny, 7,080-yard, par-72 Lakewood Country Club course to overtake struggling rookie Hubert Green, his playing partner and the third-round leader.

Beard finished at 276 and Green, who had a final 71, was at 277.

Lee Elder and George Johnson tied for third at 278. Elder had a 71 and Johnson a 68. Masters champion Charles Coody followed at 280.

Defending champion Millier Barber was tied at 281 with Dave Hill, John Lotz and Jack Ewing.

Eddie Pearce Wins North-South Golf

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — There was only one winner, but both finalists in the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament feel they had a good week.

For 19-year-old Wake Forest University freshman Eddie Pearce there was, of course the thrill of paying four under par golf to win the 36-hole championship match 5 and 4 Saturday.

Runnerup Vinny Giles, disappointed at not winning the final match, still considered his over-all week's work a big plus.

"This tournament has done my confidence a world of good," said the red-haired 28-year-old Richmond, Va., investment banker, relaxing in the Pinehurst Country Club after his loss to the teen-ager from Temple Terrace, Fla.

Pickaway Sets LL Team Registration

The Pickaway Township team of the Tri County Little League will hold registration and practice 6 p.m. Tuesday at Pickaway School.

Buddy Baker Wins Rebel 400 At Darlington Raceway

By BLOYS BRITT AP Auto Racing Writer

DARLINGTON, S.C. (AP) Race driver Buddy Baker and his equally famous racing father, Buck, have a love affair with storied old Darlington Raceway that no other family can claim.

Buddy 30, won the Rebel 400 stock car race at the 20-year-old "granddaddy" of the South's ovals Sunday, driving past a faltering Donnie Allison with 10 laps to go. He finished 12 miles ahead of his nearest challenger.

It was Baker's second straight victory at Darlington—he won the prestigious Southern 500 last year—and gave the Baker family its fifth triumph at the 1 mile oval.

Buck Baker, now 51 and still a threat when he enters a race, won three Southern 500s—in 1953, 1960 and 1964—before moving to NASCAR's Grand American circuit for smaller, less powerful sedans.

Buddy, who has accumulated $335,261 in prize money in 12 years of racing, including the $16,065 he pocketed Sunday, is driving a Dodge this year as a stateplate of the fabled Richard Petty.

Petty, NASCAR's all-time money and events winner with 128 triumph and $941,508 has won twice at Darlington in a dozen years. But his father, the now retired Lee Petty, never could conquer the old speedway, though he won the Grand National driving title three times before quitting in 1960 to leave the driving chores—to Richard.

Elsewhere Sunday, English driver David Hobbs won the $35,000 L&M Continental 5000 Grand Prix at Laguna Seca Raceway in Monterey, Calif., Frank Brantley of Savannah, Ga., won NASCAR's $23,500 Diamond State 250 at Dover Downs and Francois Gevert of France won the 34th Eifel race on West Germany's Nuerburgring.

Larry Cannon Wins USAC Sprint Race

WEST CHESTER, Ohio (AP) — Larry Cannon of Danville, 1., has captured his first U.S. Auto Club feature sprint car race and set a record at Tri-County Speedway in doing so.

Cannon, a barber and politician, won the 40-lap feature Sunday by two car lengths over Sam Sessions of Nashville, Mich. Bill Thrasher of Houston, Tex., finished third.

Cannon took the lead on the 27-lap of the race over the half-mile dirt oval.

On one lap, Cannon logged a time of 19.29 seconds, shaving .3 of a second off the track record held by Larry Dickson of Dayton.

Westfall Nine Sweeps Twinbill

Larry Harris smashed two home runs and two singles to pace the Mustangs of Westfall to a double victory over Huntington Saturday on the Westfall diamond.

The Mustangs took the first contest, 10-4, and made it a clean sweep with an 11-4 win in the five inning finale.

Westfall continued its torrid hitting attack rapping the Huntsmen hurlers for 10 hits in the first contest and nine safeties in the abbreviated second affair.

Ted Musseiman went all the way for the Scarlet and Gray in the opener. He allowed five hits, fanned 10 and issued six free passes.

AYER and Chaney shared mound duties for Huntington whiffing eight and walking four. Musseiman aided his own cause with three singles, John Valone added three one baggers and Randy Alkire and Mike Peterson each had a single in the winning effort.

The Mustangs tallied twice in the second on three hits, added two more in the third on a two-run homer by Harris, tallied four times in the fifth and completed the scoring with a pair of markers in the sixth frame.

Huntington scored three times in the fourth and added a lone run in the seventh to account for its totals.

Randy Alkire hurled the distance for the Mustangs in the second game. He gave up five hits, struckout four and walked four.

The Huntsmen used three hurlers in the five inning nightcap. They came up with three strikeouts and four walks.

HARRIS rapped his second homer of the day and added a single for the Scarlet and Gray. Doug McKay also smashed a four bagger, Mike Peterson slashed two singles and Scott Riddle, Valone, Dave Shannon and Larry Adams each added a single to the Westfall attack.

Huntington jumped off to a four run lead in the top of the first but the heavy hitting Mustangs bounced back with five tallies in the bottom of the first to take command.

Homers by Harris and McKay accounted for two more markers in the second and a four run outburst in the third put the game on ice for Westfall.

The Mustangs are now 10-4-1 for the season and will be at Teays Valley tonight for an encounter with the Vikings.

Westfall will host Jefferson Thursday in a Class A sectional tournament fray.

Vikings Split Doubleheader With Blanchester Wildcats

Teays Valley split a double header with Blanchester Saturday on the Wildcats home grounds, dropping a 4-3 decision in the opener but scoring a 14-4 win in the nightcap.

Sam Wilson was the starter and loser for the Vikings. He limited the Wildcats to five safeties but five errors on the part of his mates contributed to his downfall.

Teays Valley opened the scoring in the top of the first when Jeff Elman singled, advanced on a ground out and scored when the Wildcats misplayed Joe Meritt's ground ball.

The Vikings tallied a single run in the fifth on Meritt's four bagger and another marker in the sixth when Dave Chaffin smashed a roundtripper.

BLANCHESTER scored a run in the fourth and rallied for three runs in the bottom of the seventh to gain the victory.

It was a different story in the finale as the Vikings ripped Blanchester pitching for 14 hits and 14 runs. Seven errors on the part of the Wildcats added to their downfall.

The starter and winner for the Blue and Gold was Ron Spurlock although he was relieved by Don Makarius.

Merritt again had the big bat for the Vikings hitting his second homer of the day in the first inning with two men on base.

Teays Valley added two more runs in the third, three in the fifth and exploded four six markers in the seventh. Dave Chaffin's double was the big Viking blow in the seventh frame.

Penny had a four bagger for Blanchester to lead the six hit attack. The Vikings are now 7-14 on the season and will host Westfall tonight.

SPORTS Highlights

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Cleveland Indians Manager Alvin Dark said Sunday that he is opposed to trading southpaw pitcher Sam McDowell to the Oakland Athletics.

The Athletics offered over the weekend to give the Indians their choice of six of 12 players they listed in return for McDowell.

Oakland Manager Dick Williams said the list includes three starting pitchers, a catcher, a choice of two outfielders, a choice of four infielders and a choice of two relief pitchers.

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Coff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., the No. 1-ranked player in the nation, downed ageless Alex Olmedo 7-5, 5-7, 6-2 to take the $3,500 first prize in the Glenwood Manor Invitational Tennis Tournament Sunday.

In the women's singles, Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego pulled a mild upset by tripping Mary Ann Curtus of St. Louis 6-3, 6-4 for the championship and $1,100.

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — John Newcombe, a first-round loser last year, disposed of Arthur Ashe 7-6, 6-4 in 68 minutes Sunday to win the singles title of the Ralings Tennis Classic.

Tom Okker and Marty Reissen combined for a straight set, 6-3, 6-4 decision over Bob Lutz and Charles Pasarell in the doubles championship. Newcombe's victory earned him $10,000. It was his third tournament victory on the World Championship of Tennis tour in just five events. Okker and Reissen split $1,800.

McCovey, Reed Gripe, But Win

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
"I feel worse today than I've felt all year," moaned slugger Willie McCovey of the San Francisco Giants. "My right knee was really acting up. This is the worst kind of weather for a guy with my problem."

"When a home run hitter hits one you can't say much," complained pitcher Ron Reed of the Atlanta Braves, "but when one of those slap hitters hits one it hurts the ego."

Sore losers? Hardly.

McCovey whacked a two-run homer in the first inning and a tie-breaking solo shot in the 13th as the Giants edged the Reds 4-3 in chilly, blustery Cincinnati. Reed checked Los Angeles 4-1 on a five-hitter, the only run coming on Maury Wills' 18th career homer.

Elsewhere in the National League, the New York Mets tripped Houston 6-5 in 10 innings, St. Louis nipped Montreal 1-0, Pittsburgh downed San Diego 5-1 and the Chicago Cubs trounced Philadelphia 7-1.

McCovey dragged his ailing knees to the plate in the 13th inning against Tony Cloninger and did something about getting to the nice warm clubhouse as soon as possible.

"Sure I was thinking of a home run," he said. "I certainly wasn't thinking of bunting. I knew it was gone when I hit it."

The victory was the 16th in the last 20 games for the Giants and gave them a six-game lead in the NL West over Atlanta, which jumped over Los Angeles and Houston into second place.

The Braves got home runs from Orlando Cepeda and Hank Aaron to support Reed's strong pitching. Cepeda connected in the first after Aaron belted his 543rd career double, putting him eighth on the all-time list. Aaron then slugged, his 603rd career homer in the eighth.

Reed lost his shutout on Wills' sixth-inning homer, which left the veteran shortstop only 585 behind Aaron. "I had only two hanging sliders all day and look what happened to them. Duke Sims hits a double and Wills gets the home run."

Cepeda's home run came on a change-up from loser Don Sutton. "I was looking for a fast ball," Cepeda said. "I don't get many change-ups, maybe three or four a year. In fact, my first hit in the major leagues was a home run on a change-up."

The Mets blew a three-run lead in the ninth inning against Houston but won it in the 10th on Ken Boswell's double and Bob Aspromote's triple off George Culver. The Astros had tied it on Cesar Ceden's two-run homer and Jim Wynn's run-scoring single.

In winning their sixth in the last seven starts, the Mets wiped out a 2-0 deficit with four runs in the sixth against Don Wilson. Tommie Agee doubled, Bud Harrelson tripled and Cleon Jones, Ed Kranepool and Aspromote produced RBI singles.

Steve Carlton ran his record to 5-1 with a nine-hitter as the Cards dropped the amazing Expos to fourth place in the NL East. The only run was unearned, coming on Lou Brock's single, two infield outs and shortstop Bobby Wine's error. Carlton also ended the 16-game hitting streak of Montreal's Rusty Staub, who hit into a big double play in the seventh with two runners aboard.

Gene Clines' tie-breaking single keyed a four-run burst in the seventh that lifted Pittsburgh past San Diego. The Padres have lost seven in a row and 15 of 17.

Red Sox Win Two; Gain Top Spot

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
There's no place like home for the Boston Red Sox—especially when it's so hard to find.

The Red Sox left 19 runners on the bases—one short of the all-time record for a nine-inning game set by the 1956 New York Yankees—as they scratched out a 9-8 victory over Minnesota Sunday to complete a doubleheader sweep and a lucrative homestand that has put them atop the American League East.

Ray Culp stymied the Twins 1-0 with a two-hitter in the opener but the Red Sox had to come from behind twice in the nightcap for their ninth victory in the 12-game stand at friendly Fenway Park.

They left the bases jammed in four innings before George Thomas' first hit of the season—a bases-loaded pinch single—capped a winning two-run rally in the ninth.

The sweep gave Boston a one-game division lead over the Baltimore Orioles, who salvaged the finale of a three-game set against their former Kansas City cousins by taming the Royals 5-3.

In other American League action, Oakland split a doubleheader with Cleveland, bowing 7-3 in 10 innings after an 8-5 first game victory, the New York Yankees swept a pair from Milwaukee 2-1 and 5-4, the Chicago White Sox beat Washington 3-1 and California subdued Detroit 4-3.

Culp, who had been shelled in his previous three starts, limited Minnesota to a pair of scattered doubles as the Red Sox took the first game to an unearned run off Bert Blyleven in the third inning.

Luis Aparicio, who had doubled, scored from second when second baseman Steve Braun booted Carl Yastrzemski's two-out grounder, giving Culp his third victory against one loss.

In the nightcap, Boston spotted the Twins a 7-2 lead before Reggie Smith's fourth hit—a three-run homer in the seventh—keyed a tying comeback.

The Twins regained the lead in the top of the ninth when Harmon Killebrew drilled a run-scoring single for his fourth hit.

But a walk and George Scott's triple knotted it again in the bottom half. Minnesota reliever Ron Perranoski then filled the bases on two walks and Thomas, hitless in six previous at-bats this season, delivered the winning hit.

The Orioles, beaten by Kansas City Friday night and Saturday after whipping the Royals 23 consecutive times over the past two seasons, captured the getaway game behind southpaw Mike Cuellar, who helped his own cause with a two-run homer.

Cleveland's Sam McDowell, shelled from the mound in the first inning of the opener at Oakland, came back to win the nightcap in a rare relief appearance as the Indians broke loose for four runs in the 10th. Chuck Hinton doubled home the go-ahead run and Ted Ford slammed a three-run homer.

Reggie Jackson's three-run homer keyed a five-run Oakland burst that knocked out McDowell in the first game, pinning the Cleveland fireballer with his fourth loss of the season.

McDowell came out of the bullpen—for the first time since 1969—in the seventh inning of the nightcap, gave up a tying homer by Don Mincher in the eighth and then checked the A's the rest of the way for his initial 1971 victory.

New York's Mel Stottlemyre throttled the Brewers on three hits in their twin bill opener and the Yanks snapped a 4-4 deadlock in the seventh inning of the second game on Danny Cater's run-scoring double.

Rick Reichard's two-run homer in the ninth lifted the White Sox past Washington for a sweep of their four-game weekend set. Reichard beat his former mates with a two-out wallop off Darold Knowles.

Sandy Alomar decided the Angels-Tigers duel with a tie-breaking single in the seventh—his fourth game-winning hit for California this year.

Canonero II Wins Derby; Faces Test

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Pimlico general manager thought he was being kidded when a telephone caller said he wanted to make a Preakness nomination for a horse racing in Venezuela. It was not a joke and neither is the horse—Canonero II, winner of the Kentucky Derby.

"I thought I was being kidded; I never heard of the horse," Chick Lang said last Saturday night, an hour after Canonero II made himself known to the world.

In changing his status from an unknown member of the Derby mutuel field to a star attraction for the Preakness, Canonero II soundly whipped 19 other 3-year-olds.

But the Kentucky-bred, Venezuelan-raised colt, owned by Edgar Caibett of Caracas, won't lack competition in the May 15 Preakness.

"I expect 14," Lang said. "One of those expected to test Canonero II is Frank J. Caldwell's Jim French, the Derby runnerup."

Trainer John Campo said Jim French came out of the Derby with cuts on three legs but that the son of Graustark would be ready for the second race of the Triple Crown series in Baltimore.

Black Hawks Win Stanley Cup Spot

CHICAGO (AP) — "We're not old men," Tony Esposito said. "We're young men and we recover quickly."

Nevertheless, like his Chicago teammates, the Black Hawks' goalie was quiet in the dressing room following Sunday's 4-2 victory over the New York Rangers that catapulted the Hawks into the National Hockey League Stanley Cup finals against Montreal.

There was exhilaration—but none of the usual hollering and clowning around the celebrating that accompanies such triumphs. The Hawks were simply too tired.

DISTANCE MAKES THE HEART GROW FONDER — Sure does, for Wilver Dornel Stargell, the Pirate plunderer of pitchers, who sets a home run record for April and leads the majors in round-trippers. Stargell, who is 30, has been a Buc star for nine years, began the season with 196 career homers, including 31 he hit last year.

Anderson Very Impressed By Giant Power After Loss

CINCINNATI (AP) — Willie McCovey of San Francisco exerted some positive thinking Sunday and left little doubt in the mind of Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson about his power.

"Sure I was thinking of a home run the last time up," McCovey said about his trip to the plate in the 13th inning when he slammed a homer to help the Giants edge the Reds 4-3. "I certainly wasn't thinking of dragging (hunting) one. I knew it was gone when I hit it."

The homer was McCovey's second of the day and fifth of the year. With Willie Mays on base in the first inning, he slammed a homer to put the Giants ahead 2-0.

"I've never seen American League sluggers but as far as I am concerned, McCovey is No. 1 in baseball for pure power and for being feared," Anderson said. "When he hits it, it's gone."

San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox said that "when McCovey gets a hold of it, forget it. He's so strong he just muscles the ball out of there."

The home runs saved McCovey some running, as he could trot around the bases and keep extra strain off both knees. "I felt worse today than I have felt all year," the big left-knee was really acting up and this is the worst kind of weather for a guy with my problem."

McCovey is bothered by arthritis in the right knee and strained a ligament in the left knee April 11, sidelining him for nine days.

As for the weather, temperatures hovered in the 50s and winds were brisk.

McCovey's first homer came off starter Gary Nolan who did not allow another hit until the sixth inning after the big blast. Nolan checked the Giants on four hits through eight innings before being relieved.

Meanwhile, Gaylord Perry held the Reds to eight hits through 11 innings and reliever Jerry Johnson blanked Cincinnati in the 12th and 13th innings to pick up his third victory against no losses. He now has gone 19 innings this year while permitting only one run.

"I pitched five times in the last six days and I didn't feel too good today," Johnson said. "My arm stiffened up a little bit and I didn't have my fluid motion, but when my arm gets tired it doesn't hurt me."

Johnson hurled out of a jam in the 13th after John Bench had singled and then reached third with two outs. Ironically, the man Johnson retired on a comeback grounder was the same player who had tied the game 3-3 for Cincinnati in the ninth and driven in another run in the two-run second inning — Tommy Helms.

Although the Reds outthit the Giants 11-6, Anderson said that Cincinnati is not hitting in the clutch. "We have plenty of chances. We're certainly not scoring many runs for Gary Nolan."

"Everything San Francisco is doing now is right and we just have to hope they don't get too far in front so that no one can catch them."

The Western Division leading Giants stand 19-6, the exact mark Cincinnati had last year after 25 games in mounting a quick margin in the division.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It was NBC's turn to make waves Sunday night: a shocker of a documentary about the treatment of children in some detention centers, reforms schools and mental institutions across the nation.

A network team headed by Martin Carr spent seven months investigating juvenile justice, and wound up concentrating on three areas—Cook County Jail and Elgin State Mental Hospital in the Chicago area; Indiana Boys School and Girls School, and El Paso, Tex.

The hour was filled with stories, told by boys and girls and their parents of corporal punishment, beatings and long periods spent in solitary confinement.

Narrator Edwin Newman said that an estimated one million children will be arrested this year, encountering a special system of justice, special because the rules apply only to children. It involves crimes like running away from home, truancy, being out too late at night. He stressed repeatedly that most children called juvenile delinquents have broken laws which do not exist for adults. And that many of them are held without trials, hearings or legal representation.

While the NBC team was excluded from some institutions it was investigating, in others Carr was able to interview young inmates who told of being beaten with boards, repeatedly rapped on the arch of the foot and being locked up in barren cages for prolonged periods. An official of a mental hospital defended as a "treatment" tying two 13-year-old boys to their beds for 77 hours and of keeping a girl, who had slapped a matron, tied to her bed for seven consecutive days.

They were admitted freely to the two Indiana reform schools, and the boys school superintendent did not attempt to evade the fact there were abuses—too many boys in for too short periods, he said, and there was the problem of untrained supervisory employees, many of them with no experience with juveniles.

It was a hard-hitting, well-documented hour and put a spotlight on a dark corner of American justice.

The public broadcasting stations launched on Sunday night another six-part dramatic series, a British adaptation of Dostoevsky's "The Possessed." Like others in the British Broadcasting Corporation's "Masterpiece Theatre" productions, it was beautifully acted by a large cast.

Color Television

Stolen, Returned

PARIS, Tex. (AP) — Some body stole Dan Vanderburg's color television set from his home.

He called police, who found no trace of it.

The next day, Vanderburg came home to find the television set back in place — the result either of conscience or cold feet.

DISTANCE MAKES THE HEART GROW FONDER — Sure does, for Wilver Dornel Stargell, the Pirate plunderer of pitchers, who sets a home run record for April and leads the majors in round-trippers. Stargell, who is 30, has been a Buc star for nine years, began the season with 196 career homers, including 31 he hit last year.

Anderson Very Impressed By Giant Power After Loss

CINCINNATI (AP) — Willie McCovey of San Francisco exerted some positive thinking Sunday and left little doubt in the mind of Cincinnati Manager Sparky Anderson about his power.

"Sure I was thinking of a home run the last time up," McCovey said about his trip to the plate in the 13th inning when he slammed a homer to help the Giants edge the Reds 4-3. "I certainly wasn't thinking of dragging (bunting) one. I knew it was gone when I hit it."

The homer was McCovey's second of the day and fifth of the year. With Willie Mays on base in the first inning, he slammed a homer to put the Giants ahead 2-0.

"I've never seen American League sluggers but as far as I am concerned, McCovey is No. 1 in baseball for pure power and for being feared," Anderson said. "When he hits it, it's gone. San Francisco Manager Charlie Fox said that 'when McCovey gets a hold of it, forget it. He's so strong he just muscles the ball out of there.'"

The home runs saved McCovey some running, as he could trot around the bases and keep extra strain off both knees. "I felt worse today than I have felt all year," the big left-hander continued. "My right knee was really acting up and this is the worst kind of weather for a guy with my problem."

McCovey is bothered by arthritis in the right knee and strained a ligament in the left knee April 11, sidelining him for nine days.

As for the weather, temperatures hovered in the 50s and winds were brisk.

McCovey's first homer came off starter Gary Nolan who did not allow another hit until the sixth inning after the big blast. Nolan checked the Giants on four hits through eight innings before being relieved.

Meanwhile, Gaylord Perry held the Reds to eight hits through 11 innings and reliever Jerry Johnson blanked Cincinnati in the 12th and 13th innings to pick up his third victory against no losses. He now has gone 19 innings this year while permitting only one run.

"I pitched five times in the last six days and I didn't feel too good today," Johnson said. "My arm stiffened up a little bit and I didn't have my fluid motion, but when my arm gets tired it doesn't hurt me."

Johnson hurled out of a jam in the 13th after John Bench had singled and then reached third with two outs. Ironically, the man Johnson retired on a comeback grounder was the same player who had tied the game 3-3 for Cincinnati in the ninth and driven in another run in the two-run second inning — Tommy Helms.

Although the Reds outthrew the Giants 11-6, Anderson said that Cincinnati is not hitting in the clutch. "We have plenty of chances. We're certainly not scoring many runs for Gary Nolan."

"Everything San Francisco is doing now is right and we just have to hope they don't get too far in front so that no one can catch them."

The Western Division leading Giants stand 19-6, the exact mark Cincinnati had last year after 25 games in mounting a quick margin in the division.

Views on Television

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It was NBC's turn to make waves Sunday night: a shocker of a documentary about the treatment of children in some detention centers, reforms schools and mental institutions across the nation.

A network team headed by Martin Carr spent seven months investigating juvenile justice, and wound up concentrating on three areas: Cook County Jail and Elgin State Mental Hospital in the Chicago area; Indiana Boys School and Girls School, and El Paso, Tex.

The hour was filled with stories, told by boys and girls and their parents of corporal punishment, beatings and long periods spent in solitary confinement.

Narrator Edwin Newman said that an estimated one million children will be arrested this year, encountering a special system of justice, special because the rules apply only to children. It involves crimes like running away from home, truancy, being out too late at night. He stressed repeatedly that most children called juvenile delinquents have broken laws which do not exist for adults. And that many of them are held without trials, hearings or legal representation.

While the NBC team was excluded from some institutions it was investigating, in others Carr was able to interview young inmates who told of being beaten with boards, repeatedly rapped on the arch of the foot and being locked up in barren cages for prolonged periods. An official of a mental hospital defended as a "treatment" tying two 13-year-old boys to their beds for 77 hours and of keeping a girl, who had slapped a matron, tied to her bed for seven consecutive days.

They were admitted freely to the two Indiana reform schools, and the boys school superintendent did not attempt to evade the fact there were abuses—too many boys in for too short periods, he said, and there was the problem of untrained supervisory employees, many of them with no experience with juveniles.

It was a hard-hitting, well-documented hour and put a spotlight on a dark corner of American justice.

The public broadcasting stations launched on Sunday night another six-part dramatic series, a British adaptation of Dostoevsky's "The Possessed." Like others in the British Broadcasting Corporation's "Masterpiece Theatre" productions, it was beautifully acted by a large cast.

Four salesmen with Rod Bell Motor Sales, will be honored for outstanding sales performance during 1970 at a banquet in Cincinnati, Ohio, on May 22.
John W. Bonnel, Ford Division's Cincinnati district sales manager, said district Ford salesmen will receive 300-500 Club membership pins during the banquet at the Stouffer's Inn. The 300-500 Club was founded 21 years ago to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country. About 11,000 of Ford's 27,000 salesmen from coast to coast became members in the club in 1970.
"The average member sold about $750,000 worth of automotive merchandise during 1970 to qualify for the national honor," Mr. Bonnel said.
They are Carl Penwell, Roy F. Morgan, Logan Campbell and Edward Warning.

Ex-City Manager Faces Charges

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — Former Ashtabula city manager David P. DeLuca was free on $100 bond today after pleading innocent to a charge of visiting gambling rooms.
DeLuca was one of 16 men arrested Saturday in a police raid on the Harbor Smoke Shop where police said they confiscated a large number of Kentucky Derby betting slips, 65 packs of playing cards, dice and dice cups.
DeLuca, 49, city manager from 1960 through 1969 who was defeated in a bid for a fifth term in 1969, was charged with visiting gambling rooms. Two other men arrested on the same charge as DeLuca, a councilman for three years before becoming city manager, were also released on $100 bonds after pleading innocent Saturday.

Nixon Announces $400 Million Farm Income Program

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon returns to Washington today with a $400 million program to help farmers improve incomes and exports—and perhaps improve his own political image in the farm belt. Loans would make up $349.4 million of the total. For the man who was booed, picketed and snowballed by Iowa farmers during the winter, one great goal now is to push farm exports to $10 billion a year. A record $7.4 billion is forecast for this year.

Nixon spelled it out in a Sunday radio address to the nation. To achieve the goal, he is adding $1 million to the $27.7 million already in the fiscal 1972 budget for the Foreign Agricultural Service—the federal agency which helps expand agricultural sales overseas.

He also promised continued efforts to lower trade barriers. The President disclosed new measures to help farmers combat inflation and ease the cost-price squeeze on an industry whose income this year will be the highest ever. The trouble, he said, is that increases in total income do not always mean increases in net income—because of the high costs of inflation—beset farmers.

So, Nixon said, the administration is working to expand the supply of farm credit. The first step is a bid to Congress to authorize the Farmers Home Administration to insure farm operating loans and then increase the amount available by $140 million—from $210 million this fiscal year to $350 million for the next.

The President said he hoped this credit expansion would be especially helpful to Southwestern farms hard hit by drought.

Nixon also injected into the budget for the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30 $9.6 million to finance federal and state research and experiment stations to attack Southern leaf blight on corn, and to combat cattle ticks, fire ants and gypsy moths that menace Eastern timber.

To throw more manpower into soil conservation, Nixon is adding $12 million to the $135 million already in the 1972 budget. And he is increasing from $77 million to $105 million the 1972 total for 75 small new watershed projects. And he called for an extra $100 million this year and $111 million next year for an insured loan program to finance rural water and sewer systems.

Nixon bore down hard on expanding farm exports at the outset of his speech.

"We know," he said, "that American agriculture can compete successfully—whenever it has the chance. We are determined to see it has that chance.

"As recently as the 1968 fiscal year, farm exports actually dropped by half a billion dollars, a condition which I promised in 1968 to remedy during my presidential term. I am happy to say that we have delivered on that promise."

Obstacles Halt March

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Several obstacles erected along the line of march forced the cancellation Sunday of the May Day Derby, a 15-mile march for charity from Alliance to Minerva.

The march, sponsored by the Alliance and Minerva Rotary clubs and the Alliance Y.M.C.A. in cooperation with the Stark County Metropolitan Park System, was expected to draw some 700 participants and to raise about $15,000.

The marchers had obtained sponsors who agreed to contribute money for each mile they walked, with the money to be given to local charities.

The march was to be made along an abandoned Penn Central railroad right-of-way known as the Trail of the Iron Horse, which has been leased as part of the metropolitan park system.

Sponsors said it was called off after 10 fences had been erected across the trail. They said the fences were erected by farmers who apparently objected to the trail being taken into the park system.

Some 500 people had assembled for the march when it was called off. About 200 then made the march on their own, but no incidents were reported.

Series Of Caves Believed Largest

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP) — Ray Love, who has studied geological formations across the continent, says he has discovered a series of caves that could be the largest in the United States.

Nearly all the cave area lies under land comprising the Pine Mountain State Park.

Love said he was checking out a small chartered cave nearly three weeks ago and found the system which may run as far as 60 miles and contain rooms with ceilings of at least 400 feet.

"I have already seen enough to rate this cave the most outstanding in the country," he reported, adding that an underground river is "20 feet deep and clear as crystal." There also is a 50-foot waterfall, he said.

Kent State Memorial Rites Continue

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Memorial services for four Kent State University students killed one year ago continued today with comedian Dick Gregory and a member of the Scranton Commission, to appear on campus.

A simple, yet dramatic, vigil begins this evening as four students position themselves with lighted lanterns on the spots where the four slain students fell.

The vigil begins at 10 p.m. and will end at the conclusion of memorial services 26 hours later. Undergraduate students will stand half-hour turns on the four spots.

The four-day memorial services, arranged by the university administration, began Saturday, but so far have attracted little campus participation.

Many students were home for the weekend, while others attended the Washington, D.C. anti-war demonstrations. But by late Sunday the campus had returned to nearly its normal population of 19,482.

Returning students helped swell a gymnasium crowd of 4,000 to hear Georgia State Representative Julian Bond Sunday night. Bond, a Negro, urged students to translate any rage over last year's killings into political action for social change.

Gregory, also a Negro, was to appear on campus at 3:30 p.m. today. James Ahern, former police chief of New Haven, Conn., and a member of the Scranton Commission, was scheduled to speak at 8 p.m.

The commission probed the causes of last May's campus disorders and the confrontation in which Ohio National Guardsmen killed the four Kent State students and wounded nine others.

McGovern Hits Nixon War Policy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., accused the Nixon administration Sunday of turning a deaf ear to the desires of the American majority by allowing the war in Southeast Asia to continue.

McGovern told audiences at Bowling Green State and Ohio State universities the U.S. should completely withdraw its forces from the area after obtaining some assurance of the safety of the people of South Vietnam and the release of American prisoners.

He branded the administration's gradual troop withdrawal plan "unworkable" because it permits the continuing presence of American air and sea power.

The South Dakota Democrat, first of his party to openly declare candidacy for the 1972 presidential nomination, charged those who favor the war with having little reverence for human life.

"Who gave us the judgment of God to make the decision that the people of Southeast Asia are better dead than red?" he asked.

Four salesmen with Rod Bell Motor Sales, will be honored for outstanding sales performance during 1970 at a banquet in Cincinnati, Ohio, on May 22.
John W. Bonnell, Ford Division's Cincinnati district sales manager, said district Ford salesmen will receive 300-500 Club membership pins during the banquet at the Stouffer's Inn. The 300-500 Club was founded 21 years ago to recognize the performance of outstanding Ford salesmen throughout the country. About 11,000 of Ford's 27,000 salesmen from coast to coast became members in the club in 1970.
"The average member sold about $750,000 worth of automotive merchandise during 1970 to qualify for the national honor," Mr. Bonnell said.
They are Carl Penwell, Roy F. Morgan, Logan Campbell and Edward Warning.

Ex-City Manager Faces Charges

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — Former Ashtabula city manager David P. DeLuca was free on $100 bond today after pleading innocent to a charge of visiting gambling rooms.
DeLuca was one of 16 men arrested Saturday in a police raid on the Harbor Smoke Shop where police said they confiscated a large number of Kentucky Derby betting slips, 65 packs of playing cards, dice and dice cups.
DeLuca, 49, city manager from 1969 through 1969 who was defeated in a bid for a fifth term in 1969, was charged with visiting gambling rooms. Two other men arrested on the same charge as DeLuca, a councilman for three years before becoming city manager, were also released on $100 bonds after pleading innocent Saturday.

Obstacles Halt March

ALLIANCE, Ohio (AP)—Several obstacles erected along the line of march forced the cancellation Sunday of the May Day Derby, a 15-mile march for charity from Alliance to Minerva.

The march, sponsored by the Alliance and Minerva Rotary clubs and the Alliance Y.M.C.A. in cooperation with the Stark County Metropolitan Park System, was expected to draw some 700 participants and to raise about $15,000.

The marchers had obtained sponsors who agreed to contribute money for each mile they walked, with the money to be given to local charities.

The march was to be made along an abandoned Penn Central railroad right-of-way known as the Trail of the Iron Horse, which has been leased as part of the metropolitan park system.

Sponsors said it was called off after 10 fences had been erected across the trail. They said the fences were erected by farmers who apparently objected to the trail being taken into the park system.

Some 500 people had assembled for the march when it was called off. About 200 then made the march on their own, but no incidents were reported.

Series Of Caves Believed Largest

WHITESBURG, Ky. (AP) — Ray Love, who has studied geological formations across the continent, says he has discovered a series of caves that could be the largest in the United States.

Nearly all the cave area lies under land comprising the Pine Mountain State Park.

Love said he was checking out a small chartered cave nearly three weeks ago and found the system which may run as far as 60 miles and contain rooms with ceilings of at least 400 feet.

"I have already seen enough to rate this cave the most outstanding in the country," he reported, adding that an underground river is "20 feet deep and clear as crystal." There also is a 50-foot waterfall, he said.

up $349.4 million of the total. For the man who was booed, picketed and snowballed by Iowa farmers during the winter, one great goal now is to push farm exports to $10 billion a year. A record $7.4 billion is forecast for this year.

Nixon spelled it out in a Sunday radio address to the nation. To achieve the goal, he is adding $1 million to the $27.7 million already in the fiscal 1972 budget for the Foreign Agricultural Service—the federal agen-

Kent State Memorial Rites Continue

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Memorial services for four Kent State University students killed one year ago continued today with comedian Dick Gregory and a member of the Seranton Commission, to appear on campus.

A simple, yet dramatic, vigil begins this evening as four students position themselves with lighted lanterns on the spots where the four slain students fell.

The vigil begins at 10 p.m. and will end at the conclusion of memorial services 26 hours later. Undergraduate students will stand half-hour turns on the four spots.

The four-day memorial services, arranged by the university administration, began Saturday, but so far have attracted little campus participation.

Many students were home for the weekend, while others attended the Washington, D.C. anti-war demonstrations. But by late Sunday the campus had returned to nearly its normal population of 19,482.

Returning students helped swell a gymnasium crowd of 4,000 to hear Georgia State Representative Julian Bond Sunday night. Bond, a Negro, urged students to translate any rage over last year's killings into political action for social change.

Gregory, also a Negro, was to appear on campus at 3:30 p.m. today. James Ahern, former police chief of New Haven, Conn., and a member of the Seranton Commission, was scheduled to speak at 8 p.m.

The commission probed the causes of last May's campus disorders and the confrontation in which Ohio National Guardsmen killed the four Kent State students and wounded nine others.

cy which helps expand agricultural sales overseas.

He also promised continued efforts to lower trade barriers. The President disclosed new measures to help farmers combat inflation and ease the cost-price squeeze on an industry whose income this year will be the highest ever. The trouble, he said, is that increases in total income do not always mean increases in net income—because of the high costs of inflation—beset farmers.

So, Nixon said, the administration is working to expand the supply of farm credit. The first step is a bid to Congress to authorize the Farmers Home Administration to insure farm

McGovern Hits Nixon War Policy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — U.S. Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., accused the Nixon administration Sunday of turning a deaf ear to the desires of the American majority by allowing the war in Southeast Asia to continue.

McGovern told audiences at Bowling Green State and Ohio State universities the U.S. should completely withdraw its forces from the area after obtaining some assurance of the safety of the people of South Vietnam and the release of American prisoners.

He branded the administration's gradual troop withdrawal plan "unworkable" because it permits the continuing presence of American air and sea power.

The South Dakota Democrat, first of his party to openly declare candidacy for the 1972 presidential nomination, charged those who favor the war with having little reverence for human life.

"Who gave us the judgment of God to make the decision that the people of Southeast Asia are better dead than red?" he asked.

operating loans and then increase the amount available by $140 million—from $210 million this fiscal year to $350 million for the next.

The President said he hoped this credit expansion would be especially helpful to Southwestern farms hard hit by drought.

Nixon also injected into the budget for the 1971 fiscal year ending June 30 $9.6 million to finance federal and state research and experiment stations to attack Southern leaf blight on corn, and to combat cattle ticks, fire ants and gypsy moths that menace Eastern timber.

To throw more manpower into soil conservation, Nixon is adding $12 million to the $135 million already in the 1972 budget. And he is increasing from $77 million to $105 million the 1972 total for 75 small new watershed projects. And he called for an extra $100 million this year and $111 million next year for an insured loan program to finance rural water and sewer systems.

Nixon bore down hard on expanding farm exports at the outset of his speech.

"We know," he said, "that American agriculture can compete successfully—whenever it has the chance. We are determined to see it has that chance. "As recently as the 1968 fiscal year, farm exports actually dropped by half a billion dollars, a condition which I promised in 1968 to remedy during my presidential term. I am happy to say that we have delivered on that promise."
